EXPLANATORY NOTES

The information in this Annual Information Form is stated as at December 31, 2007, unless otherwise indicated.

Unless otherwise indicated or the context otherwise requires, Supremex refers to Supremex Income Fund (the “Fund”), Supremex Inc. (“Supremex”) and Buffalo Envelope Inc. together with their respective subsidiaries and other entities controlled by them. References to “Management” in this Annual Information Form mean the senior officers of Supremex. Any statements in this Annual Information Form made by or on behalf of Management are made in such persons’ capacities as officers of Supremex and not in their personal capacities.

For an explanation of the capitalized terms and expressions and certain defined terms, please refer to the “Glossary of Terms” at the end of this Annual Information Form. Unless otherwise indicated, all dollar amounts are expressed in Canadian dollars. References to “$” are to Canadian dollars and references to “US $” or “US dollars” are to United States dollars.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Annual Information Form contains forward-looking statements relating to the future performance of the Fund. A statement is forward-looking when it uses what the Fund knows and expects today to make a statement about the future. Forward-looking statements may include words such as anticipate, assumption, believe, could, expect, goal, guidance, intend, may, objective, outlook, plan, seek, should, strive, target and will. These statements relate to future events or future performance and reflect current assumptions, expectations and estimates of Management regarding growth, results of operations, performance, business prospects and opportunities, Canadian economic environment and ability to attract and retain customers. Such forward-looking statements reflect current assumptions, expectations and estimates of Management and are based on information currently available to the Fund as at the date of this document. Forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, and should not be read as guarantees of future performance or results and actual results may differ materially from the conclusion, forecast or projection stated in such forward-looking statements. Consequently, we cannot guarantee that any forward-looking statements will materialize. Such assumptions, expectations, estimates, risks and uncertainties are discussed throughout this Annual Information Form and, in particular, in Risk Factors. Consequently, readers should not place any undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. The Fund disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

DEFINITION OF EBITDA AND DISTRIBUTABLE CASH

References to “EBITDA” are to earnings from continuing operations before net financing charges, income taxes, amortization of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets, deferred compensation and gain/loss on disposal of machinery and equipment.

Management views distributable cash as an operating performance measure, as it is a measure generally used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. Distributable cash is defined as cash flow related to operating activities adjusted for the net change in non-cash working capital balances, change in post-retirement benefits obligation, change in accrued pension benefit assets, non-cash inventory step-up charges and maintenance capital expenditures. Distributable cash is important as it summarizes the funds available for distribution to unitholders. As the Fund distributes substantially all of its cash on an on-going basis and since EBITDA is a metric used by many investors to compare issuers on the basis of the ability to generate cash from operations, management believes that in addition to net earnings, EBITDA is a useful supplementary measure from which to make adjustments to determine distributable cash.

EBITDA and Distributable Cash are not earnings measures recognized under GAAP and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. Therefore, EBITDA and Distributable Cash may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other entities. Investors are cautioned that EBITDA and Distributable Cash should not be construed as an alternative to net earnings determined in accordance with GAAP as indicators of the Fund’s performance or to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities as measures of liquidity and cash flows.

CORPORATE STRUCTURE

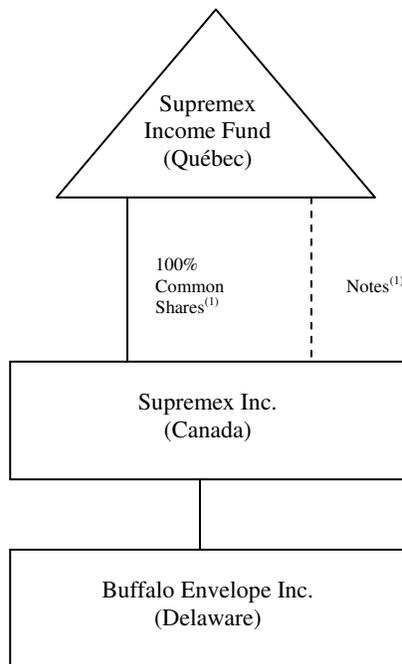

Name, Address and Incorporation

The Fund is an unincorporated, open-ended trust established under the laws of the Province of Québec by a fund declaration of trust made as of February 10, 2006 as amended and restated as of March 31, 2006 (the “Fund Declaration of Trust”). The Fund was established to acquire and hold the common shares of Supremex (the “Shares”) and approximately $292 million aggregate principal amount of the notes (the “Notes”).

The principal and head office of Supremex is located at 7213 Cordner, Lasalle, Québec, Canada, H8N 2J7.

Intercorporate Relationship

The following chart illustrates, on a simplified basis, the structure of the Fund (including jurisdiction of establishment/incorporation of the various entities).

(1) The Fund owns all of the Shares and all of the Notes.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

General

On March 31, 2006, the Fund issued 17,500,000 Units at a price of $10.00 per Unit for aggregate gross proceeds of $175,000,000 pursuant to the prospectus of the Fund dated March 17, 2006 (the "Initial Public Offering"). In addition, on April 28, 2006, the Fund issued 2,500,000 additional Units at a price of $10.00 per Unit for additional gross proceeds of $25,000,000 as a result of the exercise of the option granted by the Fund to the Underwriters to purchase up to 2,500,000 additional Units, exercisable for a period of 30 days from the closing of the Initial Public Offering.

At the closing of the Initial Public Offering, an amount of $75 million was drawn by Supremex under the credit facilities to fund the acquisition of the Business by the Fund pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement.

On March 31, 2006, in conjunction with the Initial Public Offering, the Fund indirectly acquired Supremex from Cenvéo Corporation and/or its related companies for $331,532,962. The consideration paid to Cenvéo for the acquisition was comprised of cash of $212,924,527, units of the Fund with a value of $89,474,390, a payable for acquired businesses of $5,509,045 for a working capital adjustment and a note payable of $23,625,000. As part of the acquisition 2,364,228 units held in escrow and valued at $23,642,280 were issued to management employees of Supremex for a cash consideration of $23,642 to amend the then existing management profit sharing plan.

As at December 31, 2007, the Fund held 100% of the Shares of Supremex and the Vendor sold all of its units in March 2007.

On October 31, 2006, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced the "Tax Fairness Plan" and tabled a Notice of Ways and Means Motion that proposes to significantly change the income tax treatment of most publicly traded trusts and partnerships (other than certain real estate investment trusts) and the distributions and allocations, as the case may be, from these entities to their investors. The changes were enacted in 2007. Certain income earned by these entities will be taxed in a manner similar to income earned by a corporation and distributions or allocations on such income made by these entities to investors will be taxed in a manner similar to dividends from taxable Canadian corporations. The deemed dividend will be eligible for the proposed new enhanced dividend tax credit if paid or allocated to a resident of Canada. It will be effective beginning in the 2011 taxation year for trusts and partnerships that were publicly traded prior to November 1, 2006, such as the Fund. In addition, the Department of Finance has issued guidelines under which an income trust such as the Fund will be limited as to the amount of new units it can issue after October 31, 2006 in order to avoid becoming subject to these proposals prior to the 2011 taxation year. The payment of such taxes would reduce the cash flow of the Fund thereby reducing the amount available for distributions to the Fund's unitholders. Since the announcement of the changes, management of Supremex and the Trustees have been monitoring the changes in the income trust environment and are continuing to review potential impacts on the Fund's current strategy and the alternatives available to the Fund, consistent with protecting and enhancing unitholder value.

History of the Company

The Supremex business was founded by four envelope industry executives in 1977 by the incorporation of Enveloppe Supreme Inc.

In 1990, the Schrodgers Canadian Buy-out Fund and Company, Limited, an investment fund, acquired a 78% interest in Supremex, while the management group retained the remainder. By 1991, Supremex had become Canada's third largest envelope manufacturer, operating facilities in Mississauga and Markham, Ontario and Montreal, Québec and carrying on business under each of the names "Enveloppe Supreme", "Unique Envelope", "Elite Envelope" and "Sentry Envelope".

In 1991, Supremex acquired the assets of Innova Envelope from Abitibi-Price Inc., creating the largest envelope manufacturer in Canada. In 1994, Supremex also acquired a 75% interest in Classic Envelope Plus Ltd., an envelope printer, and acquired the remaining 25% in 1998. As part of a strategic realignment, Supremex subsequently sold Classic Envelope Plus Ltd. in 2005.

Supremex was sold by the Schroders Canadian Buy-out Fund and Company, Limited and the management group to Cenveo (then Mail-Well Holdings Inc.) in 1995. Between 1995 and the closing of the Initial Public Offering, although part of the Cenveo group, Supremex was managed by its parent company on a decentralized basis due to the unique characteristics of the Canadian envelope market. During such period, Supremex continued to operate and grow under its own general strategic direction, operating principles and corporate identity.

After 1995, Supremex continued to expand aggressively through the completion of several strategic acquisitions. In 1996, Supremex acquired the assets of PNG Products Inc., PAC National Group and PNG Enveloppe Internationale Inc., which until then was the only other national envelope manufacturer and marketer in Canada. In 1998, Supremex acquired the assets of the envelope division of Québec-based Dominion BlueLine Inc. In 2000, Supremex acquired Ontario-based CML Industries Ltd., which included Regional Envelope Products Inc., Transit Envelope Inc. (Montreal), Precision Fine Papers Inc. and CML's Specialty Paper Products division. In 2001, Supremex commenced the management of the consumer business of Cenveo "Depew" operations in Buffalo, New York. Precision Fine Papers Inc., a paper sheeter and converter, was sold in September 2005.

For a certain period after each acquisition, Supremex retained the trade names of many of the acquired companies in order to leverage the benefits of established brand recognition and customer goodwill inherent therein. Over time, however, the Supremex name gained a leading reputation in the market place and the branding strategy was transitioned such that virtually all of Supremex's business is now conducted under the Supremex name.

In September 2005, all but one of the members of the Board of Directors of Supremex's parent, Cenveo, were replaced with nominees proposed by Burton Capital Management and Goodwood Inc. In November 2005, Cenveo publicly announced its intention to evaluate the sale of its Canadian operations to de-leverage Cenveo's balance sheet and redeploy its capital. This resulted in the Initial Public Offering in March 2006 and was completed in March 2007, with the sale by Cenveo of the balance of its indirect retained interest in Supremex.

Recent Developments

On August 9, 2007, the Fund acquired substantially all the assets of NPG Envelope ("NPG") for a cash payment of $25.6 million, subject to a working capital adjustment. There will be an adjustment up or down to the extent that the working capital of NPG is not $3.8 million. The cash payment was funded with a combination of funds raised from the existing revolving credit facility and cash on hand.

NPG was the second largest envelope manufacturer in Canada with approximately $26 million in revenues. The NPG acquisition is consistent with the Fund's acquisition strategy to identify consolidation opportunities within its existing core business segment and acquire strong companies with complementary strengths and significant opportunities to achieve meaningful synergies. Corporate synergies are expected to consist primarily of cost savings relating to raw materials and reduction of overhead. This strategy is intended to assist the Fund in achieving its goals and demonstrates its commitment to the future of its industry. As at December 31, 2007, management has accrued $1.6 million of restructuring costs estimated to be incurred. However, the amount of these restructuring costs is subject to modification as management completes a detailed assessment of the assets acquired pursuant to the NPG acquisition and changes may be made as more information becomes available.

The Fund announced on November 5, 2007 its intention to purchase for cancellation, by way of a NCIB, some of its Units through the facilities of the Toronto Stock Exchange, beginning on November 8, 2007 and ending November 7, 2008.

Under the NCIB, the Fund may repurchase for cancellation up to 2,000,000 Units. This represented approximately 9.1% of its public float of 21,955,231 Units as of November 5, 2007. At the same date, 31,311,667 Units were outstanding. The cash consideration that the Fund will pay for any Units acquired by it under the NCIB will be the market price of such Units at the time of the acquisition. Up to December 31, 2007, the Fund purchase for cancellation an aggregate of 1,743,500 Fund Units at an average price of $5.91 for a total of $10,303,543.

BUSINESS OF SUPREMEX

Overview

Supremex is Canada's leading manufacturer and marketer of a broad range of stock and custom envelopes and related products. Supremex is the only national envelope manufacturer in Canada with 11 manufacturing facilities across seven provinces. This national presence enables it to satisfy the manufacturing requirements of large national customers, such as large Canadian corporations, nationwide resellers and governmental entities, as well as paper merchants and solution and process providers. In fiscal 2007, Supremex generated revenue of approximately $188 million on volumes of over 7.2 billion envelopes.

Management believes that Supremex has the largest share of the Canadian envelope manufacturing industry based on fiscal 2007 revenue. This leading market share is due to Supremex's ability to successfully compete on both a local and national basis across Canada. Supremex's next largest competitor holds an estimated domestic market share of less than 10% of total Canadian envelope revenue, according to Management estimates.

Supremex has well-established relationships with a diversified loyal base of customers in Canada and in certain parts of the United States.

As of December 31, 2007, Supremex employed approximately 780 people and operated 13 facilities strategically located across Canada and one facility in the United States. Supremex's local presence across Canada ensures proximity to its customers, both in Canada and in certain parts of the Northern United States.

The concentration of Canadian demand and sales orders in Toronto and Montreal and additional sales to key Northern United States-based customers in fiscal 2007 resulted in approximately 83% of Supremex's revenue originating from the Central and Eastern regions.

Industry Overview

Overview

The North American envelope manufacturing industry is a mature industry estimated to generate approximately US$4.0 billion in annual sales on volumes of approximately 230 billion units, according to the EMA. Management estimates that the Canadian envelope manufacturing industry generated approximately $300 million in sales in 2007 on volumes of approximately 11 billion units. The Canadian envelope manufacturing industry is relatively concentrated with the top five producers accounting for an estimated 80% of domestic sales and with Supremex holding a market share of approximately 60%, according to Management estimates.

A significant majority of envelopes manufactured in Canada are used for mailing purposes and the remainder are used for non-mail purposes. Examples of envelopes used for non-mail purposes include automatic teller machine ("ATM") envelopes, overnight courier envelopes, payroll envelopes and photo product envelopes.

Transactional mail volumes are driven by activities of business-to-consumer businesses, primarily in the form of bills and statements from financial institutions, telecommunications companies and governmental entities. Transactional mail volumes are positively influenced by the overall growth of the economy, the population and the number of households.

Trends such as bill consolidation, whereby a service provider combines the billing of multiple services into one invoice, and the growth in the use of Internet for electronic bill presentment and payment are generally thought to have a negative impact on transactional mail volumes and related items such as envelopes.

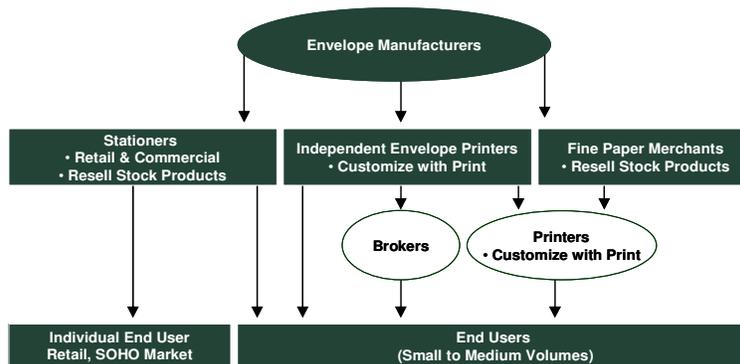

Direct mail volumes are driven by direct mail activities of direct marketers, catalog-oriented retailers, publications marketers, credit card companies and other companies involved in business-to-consumer advertising. Demand for direct mail is driven by advertising spending and has historically tracked economic activity. As the number of different advertising and media channels expands with technologies such as the Internet and Video-On-Demand television, the ability to reach targeted consumer groups is becoming more challenging for advertisers. As a result, direct mail is still perceived by advertisers as an effective tool and remains widely used for targeting specific consumer groups.

Market Description

Stock Envelope Market

Stock envelopes are generic envelopes which have various uses. Envelope manufacturers typically sell stock envelopes to retail and commercial stationers, independent envelope printers (“jet shops”) and fine paper merchants. Retail and commercial stationers resell stock envelopes to individual end users and to the small office and home office (“SOHO”) market. Jet shops purchase stock envelopes and typically add custom printing and graphics and resell them, directly or indirectly, to various end users. Fine paper merchants resell stock envelopes to printers who print them and ultimately sell them to end users. The following chart illustrates the primary distribution channels for the stock envelope market.

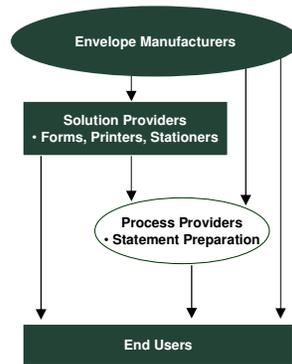

Primary Distribution Channels for the Stock Envelope Market

Custom Envelope Market

Custom envelopes are tailored to customer specifications. Custom envelopes are sold directly to end users or indirectly through process and solution providers. Over the past decade, large companies such as financial institutions, utilities and major billers have been increasingly outsourcing their statement preparation, as well as their envelope procurement and distribution, to third party process or solution providers in an effort to focus capital investment on core competencies. In turn, these process and solution providers have relied more heavily on printers and manufacturers of envelopes that have size, scale and scope to effectively service a sizable portion of their needs. The following chart illustrates the primary distribution channels for the custom envelope market.

Primary Distribution Channels for the Custom Envelope Market

Industry Characteristics

Order Process

The envelope manufacturing business is primarily characterized by individual orders for specific manufacturing jobs. To a much lesser extent, the envelope industry is also characterized by short-term contracts which provide for general terms such as quarterly, annual or semi-annual volumes, warehousing, terms of payment and availability. These short-term contracts can typically be terminated upon prior notice by customers without penalty at any time before the end of the term.

Cost Structure

The cost of paper represents the largest expense category for manufacturers of envelopes. The purchase price of paper varies according to supply and demand forces in the paper market and other input costs related thereto. Raw materials, such as window film, boxes and adhesives, are susceptible to fluctuations of energy costs. As per industry practice, fluctuations in the cost of raw materials are generally passed through to Supremex's customers.

Barriers to Entry

To become a sizeable player in the Canadian envelope manufacturing industry, a company must have the ability to compete on both a national basis for large accounts and on a local basis for small and large accounts. To do so, an envelope manufacturer must make significant capital investments, employ highly skilled individuals and offer a broad range of products and services.

Business Strategy

Supremex intends to leverage its core competencies to maintain its leading position in the Canadian envelope market, enhance profitability and strengthen its position in certain parts of the Northern United States envelope market. The strategies employed by Supremex in achieving these objectives are outlined below.

Continue to Pursue Operational Excellence and Efficiencies

Supremex continually seeks to enhance profitability by increasing operating efficiencies, reducing operating expenses and following a disciplined capital investment program. Supremex intends to continue to evaluate operating practices on an ongoing basis to ensure that productivity and profitability are maximized. Supremex has also successfully implemented a wide variety of cost reduction and productivity improvement initiatives. As an example, from fiscal 2001 to fiscal 2007, Supremex reduced the number of facilities and the size of its work force by approximately 150 employees (representing almost 19% of its work force) while maintaining approximately the same level of production during this time. Supremex intends to continue to review operating practices on an ongoing basis with the objective to ensure that productivity and profitability are maximized, and that Supremex's low-cost position is maintained.

Focus on High Quality Products and Services

Envelope customers using direct mail channels increasingly seek innovative solutions that are intended to increase response rates while reducing lead times. Among other features, direct mail customers seek enhanced color-rich graphics and interactive features to improve response rates. Supremex intends to continue to focus on selling more complex, less commoditized products that enable it to leverage its expertise and unique capabilities in order to enhance profitability.

In addition to the supply of envelopes for transactional mail, Supremex intends to continue adding value by providing services that include pre-press graphics and design and distribution services. Supremex's warehousing facilities provide its customers with the opportunity to reduce their own envelope storage and warehousing requirements while enabling Supremex to optimize production efficiencies.

Introduce Complementary Value-Added Product and Service Offerings

Supremex intends to continue to leverage the skills of its employees and the full breadth of its existing manufacturing base and extensive customer relationships to develop and market new complementary value-added product and service offerings, such as packaging products and pressure sensitive labeling solutions. As part of this strategy, Supremex purchased in April 2006 certain pressure sensitive labelling machinery as well as an eight-color flexographic press, allowing for the development and manufacturing of complementary products.

United States Opportunities

In 2007, Supremex's production sold in the United States was approximately 1.4 billion units. Supremex has adopted a conservative and focused approach in selling in certain parts of the United States market. Supremex has positioned itself, with direct and indirect U.S. customers, as a high quality and reliable envelope manufacturer. Supremex serves the United States market primarily from the Toronto and Montreal locations and concentrates its efforts in the United States on value-added products on an order-to-order basis. Success has been achieved primarily with short to medium sized (1 million to 10 million units) web runs and longer run (more than 2 million units) conventional manufacturing orders. Supremex's flexibility in production scheduling is a key competitive advantage and plays an important role in its ability to service the United States market efficiently. However, given the strengthening of the Canadian dollar and the freight impact, it is becoming more and more difficult to manufacture in Canada and export our products in the US, in a profitable manner.

Selectively Pursue Strategic Acquisitions

Subject to prevailing market conditions and the ability to obtain any necessary required regulatory approvals, Supremex intends to continue to pursue selective strategic acquisitions in the envelope manufacturing industry in Canada and, in certain parts of the United States to enhance its product and service offerings and build on its strengths in select markets. Since 1990, Supremex has successfully completed seven acquisitions and increased its revenue from approximately $32 million in fiscal 1990 to approximately $188 million in fiscal 2007. Supremex has a proven expertise in acquiring envelope companies and successfully integrating and rationalizing the operations of such acquired businesses to enhance profitability.

Product and Service Offering

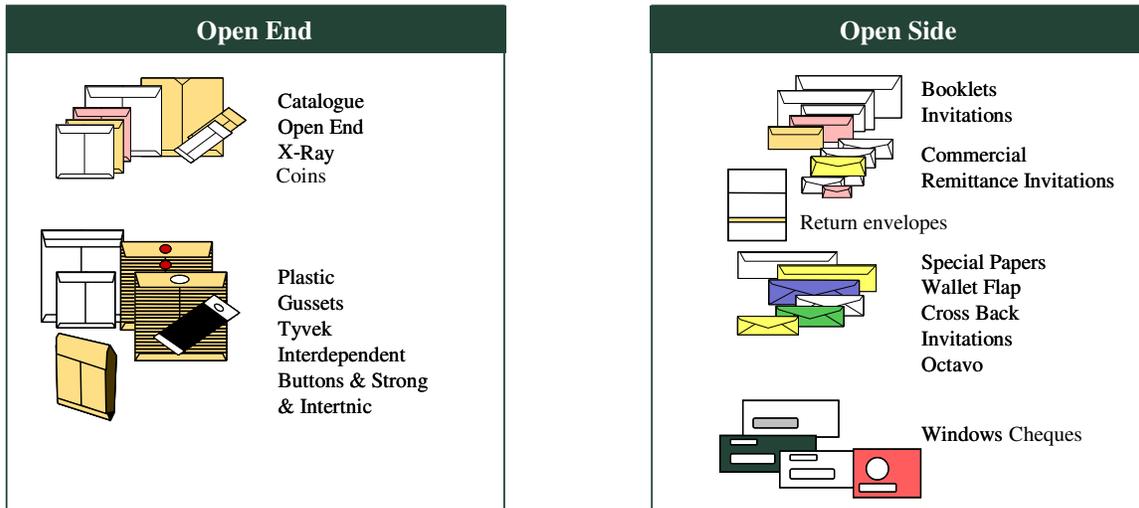

Supremex manufactures a broad range of envelopes in an array of styles, shapes and colors, which allow it to offer its customers a high degree of flexibility and customization. The products can generally be divided into three categories: stock envelopes, custom envelopes and related products.

As part of its envelope offering, Supremex offers its customers graphic art, warehousing and distribution services related to its products. Graphic art services include basic design and creative activities through to final customer-approved proofs for envelope printing. Warehousing and distribution of its products are provided to customers seeking to minimize the total cost of buying envelopes, while ensuring availability of supply and timely delivery.

Stock Envelopes

Supremex maintains the broadest stock envelope product line in Canada. The stock envelope is a generic product that can be used by customers for a variety of uses.

Stock envelopes range from the smallest greeting card or coin envelope to jumbo mailers and are made of various colours and grades of paper. The following charts illustrate examples of stock envelopes:

Stock envelopes are mainly sold through fine paper merchants, independent envelope printers and commercial and office stationery suppliers. Management has determined that it is more cost effective for Supremex to sell stock envelopes through these distribution channels, rather than conducting its own marketing and sales efforts to sell them directly to end users.

Custom Envelopes

Custom envelopes are manufactured according to customer specifications, which may require the collection of over 100 different pieces of information. Examples of custom features include size, color, print, paper quality and window characteristics. Management believes that custom envelopes represent the majority of all envelopes consumed in the Canadian market. The method of procurement of custom envelopes by customers varies from end users buying directly for their own use to solution providers buying on behalf of large end users, and Supremex has been very successful in adapting itself to various procurement methods in the marketplace.

The main categories of custom envelopes, based on the use of the product, are mail and non-mail envelopes. Examples of non-mail envelopes produced by Supremex are automatic teller machine (“ATM”) envelopes, overnight courier envelopes, payroll envelopes and photo product envelopes.

Related Products

In addition to custom and stock envelopes, Supremex offers related products which include X-ray envelopes, medical and file folders, polyethylene bags for courier applications and bubble mailers.

Distribution Channels

Supremex typically distributes its products within approximately 800 kilometers of its manufacturing facilities to all major geographic markets across Canada and in certain parts of the Northern United States via two distinct distribution channels:

Resellers of Stock Envelopes

The resellers of stock envelopes consist of distributors who resell Supremex's envelopes to printers and to small and large businesses, which include fine paper merchants, independent envelope printers and stationers. Management believes that Supremex's unique combination of a broad stock envelope offering, next-day product delivery and national distribution network provide key selling propositions for resellers.

Resellers and End Users of Custom Envelopes

The resellers of custom envelopes consist of intermediaries who resell Supremex's envelopes to end users. Such resellers include solution providers (such as forms manufacturers, large printers, and commercial and office stationery suppliers) and process providers (such as statement preparation providers).

Supremex believes that its broad custom envelope offering, flexible and highly customized manufacturing capabilities and national distribution network provide compelling value propositions to resellers of custom envelopes.

Supremex also uses its sales force to market custom envelopes directly to corporate end users of custom envelopes.

Customers

Supremex sells its products to large and small customers in a variety of industries. Supremex maintains long-term relationships with several end users, including leading financial institutions, telecommunications and utility companies, as well as federal, provincial and municipal governmental entities. Supremex also maintains strong relationships with customers in the resale distribution channel.

The envelope manufacturing business is characterized by individual orders for specific manufacturing jobs and Supremex does not typically enter into long-term agreements with its customers. Although Supremex occasionally enters into short-term contracts with certain of its customers, these agreements can normally be terminated upon prior notice by customers without penalty at any time before the end of the term.

Raw Materials and Suppliers

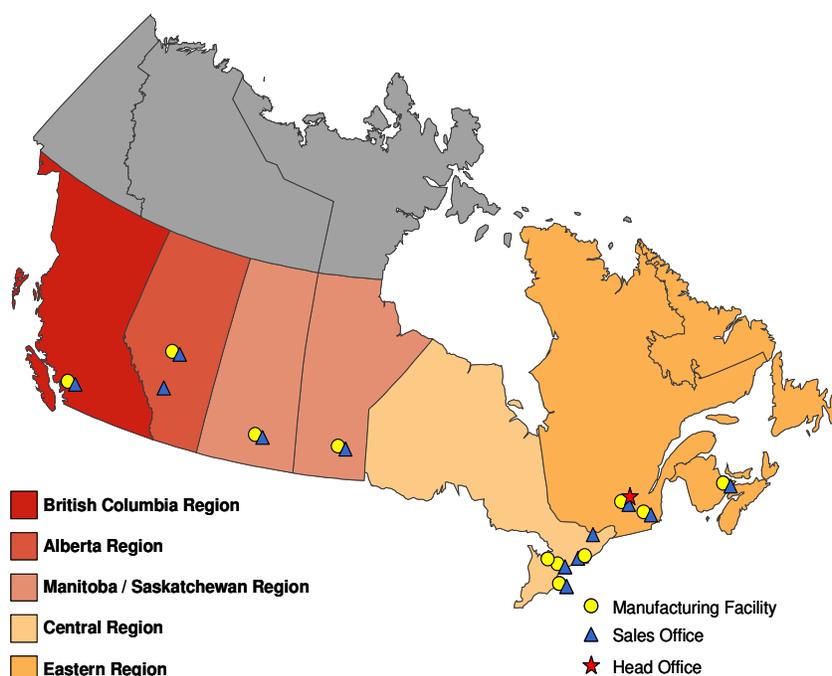

The principal raw materials used by Supremex are paper, window film, boxes, adhesives and ink.

In fiscal 2007, paper, net of paper waste revenue, represented approximately 72% of Supremex's raw material costs and were purchased from a variety of suppliers. The purchase price of paper varies according to paper grades and suppliers, and is the result of individual negotiations with such suppliers. However, the net price paid from one supplier to the other is relatively similar and is based on the market price in effect from time to time. Due to the variability in the prices of raw material supplies, envelope manufacturing costs are subject to fluctuation over time and such variations in costs are generally passed on to Supremex's customers.

Supremex typically purchases its paper and window film supplies on an ongoing basis. Supremex has never experienced a work stoppage due to insufficient supply of raw materials.

Operations and Facilities

Supremex is present in five regions across Canada — British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba/Saskatchewan, Central (Ontario) and Eastern (Québec and the Atlantic provinces). Each region is managed independently based on the unique characteristics of local markets and customers. The local management teams have significant autonomy in the way their respective regions operate. The Supremex corporate office sets various strategic priorities and financial targets for the regions and leverages its national purchasing power and other support services. The following chart below shows the Supremex regions and facility locations, save and except for Buffalo Envelope.

Supremex's Facilities

Supremex currently manufactures its products at 12 facilities, four of which are owned by Supremex and eight of which are leased by Supremex. The following table sets out certain information regarding Supremex's manufacturing facilities.

In addition to the above facilities, Supremex has two sales offices which are leased. On March 31, 2006, Supremex acquired Cenveo Depew, a business unit located in Buffalo in the United States, including the leased facility used in this operation.

Manufacturing Process

Supremex operates in excess of 230 folding, printing and accessory machines for envelope manufacturing. Two processes are used to manufacture envelopes: conventional and web folding. The process used depends on the size of a particular order, the required custom features, machine availability and delivery requirements.

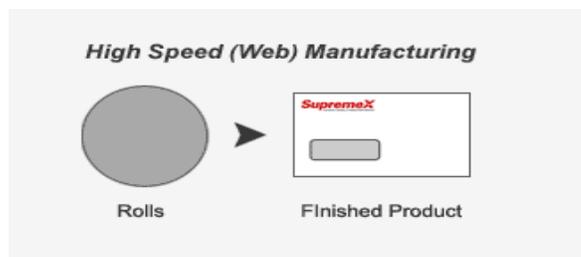

Conventional Manufacturing

Conventional envelope manufacturing entails the use of several pieces of specialized equipment for each step of the process. Conventional manufacturing is typically used for short runs or runs of specialized products as well as for flat sheet lithographic printed envelope manufacturing. This slow speed, high waste and multi-step process renders manufacturing more expensive than web folding.

Web Folding Manufacturing

The high speed web folding manufacturing process incorporates all production functions, including print, in one piece of equipment. The process is used primarily for long runs with print and may include other custom features. Waste is limited, speed is high and all manufacturing is consolidated into one step. Consequently, this form of manufacturing is more cost effective than the conventional method.

The recent improvements in flexographic printing technology have been significant and Supremex has enhanced its capabilities to remain the leader in the Canadian marketplace. Using Central Impression Technology, Supremex has been able to provide customers with a cost effective alternative to jet (off-set) or flat sheet lithographic printing and superior quality production relative to traditional flexographic envelope printing. The Central Impression Technology printing method is used in both direct mail and transactional mail applications and provides an enhanced print quality that cannot be achieved on traditional envelope equipment. The addition of the eight-color flexographic press in April 2006 allows Supremex to offer high-end print to the direct mail market.

The 2007 capital expenditures exclude the $6,985 of property plant and equipment acquired in the NPG transaction in August 2007.

For the foreseeable future, Management estimates the average annual maintenance capital expenditures to be approximately $3 million per year. This amount will consist mainly of on-going refurbishment and replacement of manufacturing machinery and equipment, building improvements and upgrading and replacement of computer equipment which can fluctuate up or down depending on the amount of manufacturing equipment we replace in a given year. Growth capital expenditures should be fairly limited over the next few years, given the state of the envelope market.

In addition to maintenance capital expenditures, Supremex incurs ongoing repair and maintenance costs which are expensed as incurred and therefore not included in capital expenditures. These expenses averaged $3.8 million per year in the last three fiscal years.

Seasonality

Supremex's revenue is subject to the moderate seasonal advertising and mailing patterns of its customers. The number of units sold by Supremex is generally higher during the months of August to February mainly due to the higher number of mailings related to events including the return to school, fund raisers and the holiday and tax seasons. The number of units sold by Supremex is generally lower during the months of March to July in anticipation of a slow down in mailing activities of businesses during the summer. As a result, Supremex's financial performance for any single quarter may not be indicative of the performance which may be expected for the full year. However, to maintain production efficiencies, Supremex utilizes warehouse capabilities to inventory envelopes as required to counter these predictable seasonal variations in sales volumes.

Employees

As at December 31, 2007, Supremex and its subsidiaries had a total of approximately 780 full and part-time employees, of which approximately 80% are involved in production activities and the remainder in sales and administration activities.

Most of Supremex's workforce is non-unionized, with 160 production workers employed under collective bargaining agreements. The collective bargaining agreements with respect to the unionized employees in (a) Markham, Ontario covers 70 employees and expired on December 31, 2012; (b) Vancouver, British Columbia covers 19 employees and is scheduled to expire on August 31, 2012; (c) Regina, Saskatchewan covers 5 employees and is scheduled to expire on March 7, 2009; and (d) Hamilton, Ontario covers 66 employees and is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2010.

The LaSalle facility is not covered by a union certification, but has a non-recognized employee association which has adopted an employee manual. The employee manual contains personnel policies for hourly paid production and warehouse employees and is aimed at informing employees about their working conditions, in a manner similar to a standard collective agreement. The rights, privileges and benefits defined in the employee manual apply to all permanent employees of Supremex in this location. The current employee manual was renewed in January 2006 and will expire on August 31, 2008.

Competition

The Canadian envelope manufacturing industry is comprised of both domestic and foreign manufacturers. Management estimates that, in addition to Supremex, there are approximately ten domestic manufacturers of envelopes, all of which are owner-operator businesses that focus their efforts on local Canadian envelope markets. These domestic manufacturers primarily serve end users, direct mail customers and governmental entities. Only one domestic manufacturer operates more than one manufacturing location in Canada. Foreign manufacturers are almost exclusively U.S.-based without any Canadian manufacturing operations and generally concentrate their efforts in Canada on a narrow range of high volume purchasers of stock envelopes.

With the exception of a few national customer accounts, manufacturers of envelopes in Canada supply local customers. Manufacturing is locally organized due to the geographic scale of Canada and the freight costs involved in the transportation of envelopes. Consequently, most envelopes are produced and consumed locally wherever possible to maximize cost efficiency and speed to market and to permit press approvals, local warehousing and just-in-time purchasing strategies.

Supremex views its primary competitors in the Canadian envelope industry to be constituted both of large manufacturers located in the United States, consisting principally of National Envelope, Cenvéo and Mead-Westvaco, and of many smaller Canadian and U.S. local competitors. The large manufacturers located in the United States, may in the future increase their market share and penetration of the Canadian envelope market. An additional factor that could contribute to such increase is the weakening of the US dollar compared to the Canadian dollar, which makes competitive entry more attractive for U.S.-based manufacturers.

Relationship with Cenvéo

The Fund, Supremex, the Vendor and Cenvéo entered into a product supply agreement (the "Supply Agreement") and a non-solicitation agreement (the "Non-Solicitation Agreement"), both dated on the Closing Date. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of each of the Supply Agreement and the Non-Solicitation Agreement, which contain a complete description of the products, territories and terms covered.

The Supply Agreement provides, among other things and subject to certain conditions, including competitive pricing and satisfactory performance by Supremex, that Supremex shall supply certain specified products for certain specified customers to Cenvéo and that Cenvéo shall purchase such specified products from Supremex during a period of two years ending March 31, 2008. The Supply Agreement also provides that each of Supremex and Cenvéo (including any of their subsidiaries) shall in good faith consider the other party to be included in a bid or contract for specified products for a period of two years from the Closing Date.

The Non-Solicitation Agreement provides that each of Cenvéo and its subsidiaries and the Fund and its subsidiaries undertake not to solicit and not to accept firm orders from a defined limited number of specified customers (in specified territories) of the other party, which are strategic to its business and not to solicit the other party's employees, subject to certain exceptions, for a period of two years following the closing of the Initial Public Offering.

Both the Supply Agreement and the Non-Solicitation Agreement remain in full force and effect following the recent sale by Vendor of all its remaining Units to TD Securities Inc.

In past years, Cenveo has been a customer of Supremex. Cenveo has an ongoing contractual arrangement with Supremex for a limited period of time, and although Management considers its relationship with Cenveo to be positive but there can be no assurance as to the level of such future sales, especially since the purchase of Commercial Envelope by Cenveo in September 2007, which increases the global capacity of Cenveo.

Environmental Regulations

Supremex's operations and real property are subject to a legislative regime including laws, statutes, regulations, by-laws, the common law, guidelines and policies as well as permits and other approvals relating to environmental matters, including those governing the use, storage, treatment, transportation and disposal of hazardous materials, the emission, release or discharge of such materials into the environment, the remediation of contamination and occupational health and safety matters (collectively, the "Environmental Laws"). Certain of these Environmental Laws may impose joint and several liability on lessees and owners or operators of facilities, as a result of their ownership or management and control of real properties, for the costs of investigation or remediation of contaminated properties, regardless of current ownership, fault, negligence or the legality of the original disposal or release.

Environmental liability is a risk associated with Supremex's business, principally with regard to past and present business operations involving the use, storage, handling and contracting for recycling or disposal of hazardous and non-hazardous materials such as washes, inks, alcohol-based products, plate solvent and photographic fixer. Supremex generates both hazardous and non-hazardous waste.

The facilities owned or operated by Supremex have been in operation for many years and, over such time, Supremex and the prior owners or operators of such properties may have used, generated or disposed of substances, some of which are or may be considered hazardous. Some of these facilities are located in industrial areas where there could have been migratory contamination from adjacent sources. Accordingly, it is possible that additional environmental liabilities may arise in the future as a result of the use, generation, release and disposal of any such hazardous and non-hazardous substances.

Prior environmental investigations dating back to 2000 had identified certain soil and ground water contamination at one of the facilities owned by one of Supremex's predecessors in Omemee, Ontario. This facility was owned by Supremex prior to the closing of the Initial Public Offering and the Vendor and Cenveo have provided Supremex with an indemnity pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement in respect of potential environmental liability arising in respect of this facility, subject to the limitations set forth in the Acquisition Agreement, in view of the fact that Supremex will remain exposed to potential environmental liability following the closing of the Initial Public Offering with respect to this facility as a result of its prior ownership and operation of the facility.

Limited environmental investigations have been conducted in 2007 and 2006 at certain of Supremex's properties.

Supremex has carried out additional limited environmental investigations at the Mississauga and LaSalle manufacturing facilities in March 2006 and at the Hamilton facility in 2007. These investigations have revealed the presence of limited groundwater contamination at the LaSalle facility. Such contamination does not appear to be related to current on-site activities and operations, but is suspected to emanate from an off-site source. Vendor and Cenveo have provided Supremex with an indemnity pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement for potential liability arising in respect of the groundwater contamination at this facility, subject to the limitations set forth in the Acquisition Agreement. No assurance can be given, however, that all potential environmental liabilities have been identified or fully assessed at these and all other facilities, or that future uses, conditions or legal requirements (including, without limitation, those that may result from future acts or omissions or changes in applicable Environmental Laws) will not require material expenditures to maintain compliance or resolve potential liabilities. Compliance with more stringent laws or regulations, as well as more vigorous enforcement policies of the regulatory agencies or stricter interpretation of existing laws and regulations, may require additional expenditures by Supremex which could vary substantially from those currently anticipated.

DESCRIPTION OF THE FUND

General

The Fund is an unincorporated open-ended trust established under the laws of the Province of Québec pursuant to the Fund Declaration of Trust.

The Fund qualifies as a mutual fund trust for the purpose of the Tax Act, although the Fund is not a mutual fund under applicable securities laws. The following is a summary of the material attributes and characteristics of the Units and certain provisions of the Fund Declaration of Trust, which, together with other summaries of the terms of the Fund Declaration of Trust appearing elsewhere in this Annual Information Form, are qualified in their entirety by reference to the text of the Fund Declaration of Trust.

Activities of the Fund

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that the activities of the Fund are restricted to:

- (a) acquiring, investing in, holding, transferring, disposing of and otherwise dealing with debt or equity securities of Supremex and other corporations, trusts or persons whose operations consist principally in the business of manufacturing and marketing a broad range of stock and custom envelopes and related products and such other investments as the Trustees may determine;
- (b) borrowing funds for the foregoing purposes;
- (c) temporarily holding cash and other short-term investments for the purposes of the Fund's activities, including paying expenses and liabilities of the Fund, paying any amounts required in connection with the redemption of Units and making distributions to Unitholders, as well as maintaining any reserve account, and the monies and investments therein from time to time;
- (d) issuing Units and other securities of the Fund (including securities convertible into or exchangeable for Units or other securities of the Fund, or warrants, options or other rights to acquire Units or other securities of the Fund), for the purposes of:
 - (i) obtaining funds to conduct the activities described in (a) above, including raising funds for further acquisitions or investments,
 - (ii) repaying of any indebtedness or borrowings of the Fund,
 - (iii) implementing unitholder rights plans or incentive option or other compensation plans, if any, established by the Fund, and
 - (iv) making non-cash distributions to Unitholders as contemplated by the Fund Declaration of Trust, including pursuant to distribution reinvestment plans, if any, established by the Fund;
- (e) repurchasing or redeeming Units or other securities of the Fund, subject to the provisions of the Fund Declaration of Trust and applicable law;
- (f) guaranteeing the obligations of any direct or indirect wholly-owned entity of the Fund pursuant to any good faith debt for borrowed money incurred by any such entity and pledging securities held by the Fund in any such entity, as the case may be, as security for such guarantee, to the extent permitted under the Tax Act; and

- (g) engaging in any activities ancillary or incidental thereto and do all such other things as are necessary, useful or ancillary to the foregoing and exercising all powers and authorities which are necessary, incidental or ancillary to carry on the affairs of the Fund, to promote the purpose for which the Fund was formed and to carry out the provisions of the Fund Declaration of Trust;

provided in each case above that the Fund will not undertake any activity, take any action, or make or retain any investment which would result (or fail to take any action where such failure would result) in the Fund not being considered a “mutual fund trust” for purposes of the Tax Act.

Trustees

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that there shall be a minimum of three and a maximum of nine Trustees, two thirds of whom must be residents of Canada (within the meaning of the Tax Act). See “Trustees, Directors and Management”.

A majority of the Trustees shall be “independent” within the meaning of applicable securities laws. The following persons are disqualified from being Trustees: (a) any natural person who is less than 18 years of age, (b) any natural person who does not have the full exercise of his or her civil rights, (c) any natural person who is of unsound mind and has been so found by a court of competent jurisdiction in Canada or elsewhere, (d) any natural person who has been placed under protection supervision, and (e) anyone who is declared bankrupt or insolvent or enters into liquidation, whether compulsory or voluntarily, to wind up its affairs.

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that, subject to the specific limitations contained in the Fund Declaration of Trust, the Trustees have full, absolute and exclusive power, control and authority over the property of the Fund and over the affairs of the Fund to the same extent as if the Trustees were the sole owner of such property in their own right and may do all such acts and things as they, in their sole judgment and discretion, deem necessary or incidental to, or desirable for, the carrying out of the duties of the Trustees as established pursuant to the Fund Declaration of Trust. Subject to such terms and conditions, the Trustees are responsible for, among other things: (i) supervising the activities and managing the investments and affairs of the Fund; (ii) effecting payments of Distributable Cash from the Fund to Unitholders; (iii) maintaining records and providing reports to Unitholders; and (iv) voting in favour of the Fund’s nominees to serve as Directors.

Any of the Trustees may resign at any time by giving to other Trustees not less than 30 days prior notice and may be removed at any time with or without cause by Ordinary Resolution.

A Trustee can also be removed at any time by the other Trustees, (i) in the event of the death of such Trustee, (ii) upon an incapacity of such Trustee which has or will prevent such Trustee from exercising the duties of the office of a Trustee for a period of at least 90 days, (iii) if such Trustee no longer satisfies all the requirements of the Fund Declaration of Trust, or (iv) if all of the assets of such Trustee, or a substantial part thereof, are subject to seizure or confiscation.

Trustees shall be appointed at each annual meeting of Unitholders to hold office for a term expiring at the close of the next annual meeting. A quorum of Trustees, being the majority of Trustees then holding office, may fill a vacancy in the Trustees, except a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of Trustees or from a failure of the Unitholders to elect the required number of Trustees. In the absence of a quorum of Trustees, or if the vacancy has arisen from a failure of the Unitholders to elect the required number of Trustees, the Trustees shall promptly call a special meeting of the Unitholders to fill the vacancy. If the Trustees fail to call such meeting or if there are not enough Trustees then in office, any Unitholder may call a meeting. Except as otherwise provided in the Fund Declaration of Trust, the Trustees may, between annual meetings of Unitholders, appoint one or more additional Trustees to serve until the next annual meeting of Unitholders, but the number of additional Trustees shall not at any time exceed one-third of the number of Trustees who held office at the expiration of the immediately preceding annual meeting of Unitholders.

Certain Restrictions on Trustees' Powers

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that the Trustees may not, without approval by Ordinary Resolution, (a) subject to the Fund Declaration of Trust, appoint or change the auditors of the Fund; and (b) take any action upon any matter which, under applicable law (including regulations, rules, policies, statements, blanket orders and rulings of Canadian securities regulatory authorities) or applicable stock exchange rules, requires the approval of Unitholders by Ordinary Resolution. Additionally, the Fund Declaration of Trust sets forth that the Trustees may not, without approval by Special Resolution, (i) amend the Fund Declaration of Trust (except in certain limited circumstances described under “Amendments to the Fund Declaration of Trust” below), (ii) sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all of the property of the Fund, other than (A) in specie redemptions permitted under the Fund Declaration of Trust and (B) in order to initially acquire the Shares and the Notes, (iii) authorize the termination, liquidation or winding-up of the Fund, other than at the end of the term of the Fund (as described under “Term of the Fund” below), (v) authorize the combination or merger or similar transaction of the Fund with any other Person, (vi) modify, amend or otherwise change the purpose of the Fund as described in the Fund Declaration of Trust and (vii) take any action upon any matter which, under applicable law (including regulations, rules, policies, statements, blanket orders and rulings of Canadian securities regulatory authorities) or applicable stock exchange rules, requires the approval of Unitholders by Special Resolution.

The Fund Declaration of Trust also provides that the Fund shall not vote securities of Supremex that it holds, to authorize any transaction that is adverse to the Unitholders, including, among other things, (a) any sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the direct or indirect assets of Supremex or any of its subsidiaries except (i) in conjunction with an internal reorganization, or (ii) pursuant to a good faith charge, pledge, mortgage, lien, security interest or other encumbrance granted by Supremex over any assets of Supremex in the ordinary course of business, or (iii) pursuant to any guarantee of any obligation of Supremex or any of its subsidiaries; (b) any amalgamation, arrangement, other merger or capital reorganization of Supremex with any other entity, except in conjunction with an internal reorganization or the acquisition by Supremex of the securities or assets of another entity; (c) the winding-up or dissolution of Supremex or any of its subsidiaries prior to the end of the term of the Fund, except in connection with an internal reorganization; (d) any material amendment to the Note Indenture, other than in contemplation of a further issue of Notes; or (e) any material amendment to the constating documents of Supremex or any of its subsidiaries that may be prejudicial to the Unitholders, without the authorization of the Unitholders by a Special Resolution.

Units

An unlimited number of Units may be issued pursuant to the Fund Declaration of Trust. Each Unit is transferable and represents an equal undivided beneficial interest in any distributions from the Fund, whether of net earnings, net realized capital gains (other than net realized capital gains distributed to redeeming Unitholders) or other amounts, and in the net assets of the Fund in the event of termination or winding-up of the Fund. All Units are of the same class with equal rights and privileges. The Units issued pursuant to the Initial Public Offering are not subject to future calls or assessments, and entitle the holders thereof to one vote for each whole Unit held at all meetings of Unitholders. Except as set out under “Description of the Fund — Redemption Right at the Option of the Unitholders” below, the Units have no conversion, retraction, redemption or pre-emptive rights.

Issuance of Units

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that the Units and other securities of the Fund, including rights to acquire Units, may be issued at times, to Persons, for consideration and on the terms and conditions that the Trustees determine, including pursuant to any unitholder rights plan or any incentive option or other compensation plan established by the Fund. Units may be issued in satisfaction of any non-cash distribution by the Fund to Unitholders on a pro rata basis. The Fund Declaration of Trust also provides that immediately after any pro rata distribution of Units to all Unitholders in satisfaction of any non-cash distribution, the number of outstanding Units will be consolidated such that each Unitholder will hold, subject to any withholding tax applicable, after the consolidation the same number of Units as the Unitholder held before the non-cash distribution. In this case, each certificate representing a number of Units prior to the non-cash distribution will be deemed to represent the same number of Units after the non-cash distribution and the consolidation.

The Trustees may refuse to allow the issue or register the transfer of any Units, where such issuance or transfer would, in their opinion, adversely affect the treatment of the Fund or the entities in which it directly or indirectly invests under applicable Canadian tax legislation or their qualification to carry on any relevant undertaking or business. See “Limitation on Non-Resident Ownership”.

Repurchase of Units

The Fund may, from time to time, purchase Units for cancellation in accordance with applicable securities legislation and the rules prescribed under applicable stock exchange or regulatory policies. Any such purchases will constitute an “issuer bid” under Canadian provincial securities legislation and must be conducted in accordance with the applicable requirements thereof.

Redemption Right at the Option of the Unitholders

Units are redeemable at any time on demand by the holders thereof upon delivery to the Fund of a duly completed and properly executed notice requesting redemption in a form reasonably acceptable to the Trustees together with any certificates representing Units to be redeemed and written instructions as to the number of Units to be redeemed. As the Units are issued in book-entry form, a Unitholder who wishes to exercise the redemption right will be required to obtain a redemption notice form from the Unitholder’s investment dealer who will be required to deliver the completed redemption notice form to the Fund, at its head office, and to CDS. Upon receipt of the redemption notice by the Fund, all rights relating to the Units tendered for redemption will be surrendered and the Unitholder will be entitled to receive a price per Unit (the “Redemption Price”) equal to the lesser of: (i) 90% of the simple average of the daily weighted average prices per Unit at which the Units have traded on the principal exchange on which Units are listed (or, if the Units are not listed on any stock exchange, on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading) during the period of the last 10 days during which Units traded on such exchange or market immediately prior to the date on which the Units were tendered for redemption and (ii) an amount equal to either (a) the closing price of the Units on the principal stock exchange on which Units are listed (or, if the Units are not listed on any stock exchange, on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading) if there was a trade on the date on which the Units were tendered for redemption and the stock exchange or market provides a closing price, (b) an amount equal to the average of the highest and lowest prices of Units on the principal exchange on which Units are listed (or, if the Units are not listed on any exchange, on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading) if there was trading on the date on which the Units were tendered for redemption and the exchange or other market provides only the highest and lowest trading prices of Units traded on a particular day or (c) the average of the last bid and ask prices on the principal exchange on which Units are listed (or, if the Units are not listed on any exchange, on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading) if there was no trading on the date on which the Units were tendered for redemption.

The aggregate Redemption Price payable by the Fund in respect of all Units surrendered for redemption during any calendar month will be satisfied by way of a cash payment no later than five days after the end of the calendar month in which the Units were tendered for redemption; provided that the entitlement of Unitholders to receive cash upon the redemption of their Units is subject to the limitations that: (i) the total amount payable by the Fund in respect of such Units and all other Units tendered for redemption in the same calendar month shall not exceed $50,000 (the “Monthly Limit”), (ii) at the time such Units are tendered for redemption, the outstanding Units shall be listed for trading on the TSX or traded or quoted on any other stock exchange or market which provides representative fair market value prices for the Units and (iii) the normal trading of outstanding Units is not suspended or halted on any stock exchange on which the Units are listed (or, if not listed on a stock exchange, on any market on which Units are quoted for trading) on the date that the outstanding Units are tendered for redemption or for more than five trading days during the 10-day trading period commencing immediately after the date on which the Units are tendered for redemption.

If a Unitholder is not entitled to receive cash upon the redemption of Units as a result of the Monthly Limit, then the Redemption Price for each Unit tendered for redemption will, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals, be paid and satisfied by way of a distribution in specie of the assets of the Fund. If a Unitholder is not entitled to receive cash upon the redemption of Units as a result of the other specified limitations, then each redeeming Unitholder will be entitled to receive a price per Unit (the “In Specie Redemption Price”) equal to the fair market value thereof as determined by the Trustees, which may be satisfied by way of a distribution in specie of the assets of the Fund. In each such case, a proportionate amount of securities of Supremex held by the Fund having an aggregate value equal to the Redemption Price (or, as applicable, the In Specie Redemption Price) will be distributed to the redeeming Unitholder in full satisfaction of the Redemption Price (or, as applicable, the In Specie Redemption Price). No fractional securities or Notes in principal amounts of less than $10 will be distributed and, where the number of securities of Supremex to be received by a Unitholder includes a fraction or a multiple of less than $10, that number will be rounded to the next lowest whole number or integral multiple of $10. The Fund will be entitled to all interest paid on Notes, if any, and distributions paid on securities or before the date of the distribution in specie. Where the Fund makes a distribution in specie of securities of Supremex on the redemption of Units, the Fund currently intends to designate to the redeeming Unitholder any capital gain or income realized by the Fund as a result of the distribution of those securities to the Unitholder on the redemption of such Units.

It is anticipated that the redemption right described above will not be the primary mechanism for Unitholders to dispose of their Units. The assets of the Fund that may be distributed in specie to Unitholders in connection with a redemption (including the securities of Supremex) will not be listed on any stock exchange, no market is expected to develop in such securities and such securities may be subject to an indefinite “hold period” or other resale restrictions under applicable securities laws. Securities so distributed may not be qualified investments for Plans.

Distributions

The Fund intends to make monthly distributions to Unitholders of its distributable cash less certain amounts including expenses and reserves. The amount of the cash available for distribution shall be equal to a pro rata share of the interest and principal repayments (except to the extent the repayment of principal is reinvested) on Notes and dividends or other distributions (if any) on or in respect of the Shares owned by the Fund less amounts that may be paid by the Fund in connection with any cash redemptions or repurchases of Units, any interest accrued for and in respect of any indebtedness of the Fund, amounts which relate to the repayment of the principal amount of any indebtedness of the Fund, amounts which the Trustees may reasonably consider necessary to provide for payment of any costs or expenses required for the operation of the Fund and for income tax liability of the Fund, if any. The Fund intends to make monthly cash distributions of Distributable Cash to the Unitholders of record on the last Business Day of each month. Such monthly distributions shall be paid on or about the 15th day following each record date.

The Fund may make additional distributions in excess of the aforementioned monthly distributions during the year, as the Trustees may determine. The distribution declared in respect of the month ending December 31, in each year shall include such amount in respect of the taxable income and net realized capital gains, if any, of the Fund for such year as is necessary to ensure that the Fund shall not have an income tax liability under Part I of the Tax Act in such year.

If the Trustees determine that the Fund does not have sufficient cash to fully pay any cash distributions, the Fund shall, to the extent necessary to ensure that the Fund does not have any income tax liability under Part I of the Tax Act, distribute additional freely tradeable Units at a price per Unit equal to the simple average of the daily weighted average price per Unit at which the Units have traded during the period of the last 10 days during which Units have traded prior to the record date. Such additional Units shall be issued pursuant to applicable exemptions under applicable securities laws, discretionary exemptions granted by applicable securities regulatory authorities or a prospectus or similar filings.

The Fund may make additional distributions in excess of monthly distributions during the year, as the Trustees may determine.

Unitholders who are Non-Residents of Canada shall be subject to withholding taxes in respect of any distribution of earnings by the Fund, whether in the form of cash or additional Units. Non-Residents should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of investing in the Units.

Transfer of Units

Transfers of ownership in the Units held through the book-entry system shall be effected only through records maintained by CDS or its nominee for such Units with respect to interests of Participants, and on the records of Participants with respect to interests of Persons other than Participants. Unitholders who are not Participants, but who desire to purchase, sell or otherwise transfer ownership of or other interests in the Units, may do so only through Participants.

The ability of a Unitholder to pledge a Unit held through the book-entry system or otherwise take action with respect to such Unitholder's interest in a Unit (other than through a Participant) may be limited due to the lack of a physical certificate.

Payments of Distributions

While the Units are held through the book-entry system, payments of distributions on each Unit shall be made by the Fund to CDS or its nominee, as the case may be, as the registered holder of the Units and the Fund understands that such payments shall be forwarded by CDS or its nominee, as the case may be, to Participants. As long as CDS or its nominee is the registered owner of Units, CDS or its nominee, as the case may be, shall be considered the sole owner of those Units for the purposes of receiving payments on those Units. The responsibility and liability of the Fund in respect of the Units is limited to making payment of any income or capital in respect of those Units to CDS or its nominee.

Take-Over Bids

The Fund Declaration of Trust contains provisions to the effect that if a take-over bid is made for the Units and not less than 90% of the Units on a fully diluted basis (including the Units issuable upon the exchange or conversion of all securities directly or indirectly exchangeable for or convertible into Units but not including any Units or securities directly or indirectly exchangeable for or convertible into Units held at the date of the take-over bid by or on behalf of the offeror or associates or affiliates of the offeror) are taken up and paid for by the offeror, the offeror will be entitled to acquire the Units and securities directly or indirectly exchangeable for or convertible into Units held by holders who did not accept the take-over bid, on the same terms on which the offeror acquired Units pursuant to the take-over bid.

Meetings of Unitholders

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that meetings of Unitholders shall be called and held annually for the election of Trustees and the appointment of auditors of the Fund. The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that the Unitholders shall be entitled to pass resolutions that will bind the Fund only with respect to:

- (a) the election or removal of Trustees;
- (b) the election or removal of nominees of the Fund to serve as Trustees;
- (c) the appointment or removal of the auditors of the Fund;
- (d) the appointment of an inspector to investigate the performance by the Trustees in respect of their respective responsibilities and duties in respect of the Fund;
- (e) the approval of amendments to the Fund Declaration of Trust (but only in the manner described below under "Description of the Fund— Amendments to the Fund Declaration of Trust");
- (f) the termination of the Fund;

- (g) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Fund;
- (h) the exercise of certain voting rights attached to the securities of the Fund, Supremex or any of their respective subsidiaries, that are directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the Fund;
- (i) the ratification of any Unitholder rights plan, distribution reinvestment plan, distribution reinvestment and Unit purchase plan, Unit option plan or other compensation plan contemplated by the Fund Declaration of Trust requiring Unitholder approval;
- (j) the dissolution of the Fund prior to the end of its term;
- (k) any other matters required by securities law, stock exchange rules or other laws or regulations to be submitted to Unitholders for their approval;
- (l) generally any other matter which requires a resolution of the Unitholders; and
- (m) transacting such other business as the Trustees may determine or as may properly be brought before the meeting, provided that the Unitholders shall not pass any resolution that would result in the Fund not being considered a “mutual fund trust” for purposes of the Tax Act.

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that meetings of Unitholders may be convened, except in certain circumstances, if requisitioned in writing by Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than 5% of the Units then outstanding. A requisition must state in reasonable detail the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.

Unitholders are entitled to attend and vote at all meetings of the Unitholders either in person or by proxy and a proxy holder is not required to be a Unitholder. Two Persons present in person or represented by proxy and holding in the aggregate not less than 10% of the votes attached to all outstanding Units shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all such meetings. At any meeting for which quorum is not present within one-half hour after the time fixed for the holding of such meeting, the meeting, if convened upon the request of the Unitholders, shall be terminated, but in any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to a day not less than 14 days later and to a place and time as chosen by the chairman of the meeting and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, the Unitholders present either in person or by proxy shall be deemed to constitute a quorum.

The Fund Declaration of Trust contains provisions as to the notice required and other procedures with respect to the calling and holding of meetings of Unitholders.

Limitation on Non-Resident Ownership

In order for the Fund to maintain its status as a mutual fund trust under the Tax Act, the Fund must not be established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents of Canada within the meaning of the Tax Act. Accordingly, for so long as is required by the Tax Act to meet such test, the Fund Declaration of Trust provides that at no time may non-residents of Canada and/or Non-Canadian Partnerships be the beneficial owners of more than 49% of the Units. This 49% limitation must be applied with respect to the issued and outstanding Units of the Fund on both (i) a non-diluted basis and (ii) a fully-diluted basis.

If at any time, the Trustees, in their sole discretion, determine that it is advisable and in the best interests of the Fund to act so that the Fund continues to qualify as a mutual fund trust for purposes of the Tax Act, the Trustees may take one or more actions including the following:

- the Trustees may perform residency searches of Unitholder and beneficial Unitholder mailing address lists and take such other steps specified by the Trustees, at the cost of the Fund, to determine or estimate, to the extent practicable, the residence of the beneficial owners of Units;

- the Trustees may require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of Units are resident or declarations from Unitholders as to whether such Units are held by or for the benefit of beneficiaries (“Non-Resident Beneficiaries”) that are non-residents of Canada (“Non-Residents”) and/or Non-Canadian Partnerships;
- the Trustees, following the issuance of a public announcement to such effect, may refuse to accept a subscription for Units from or issue or register a transfer of Units to a person unless the person provides a declaration that the person is not a Non-Resident and/or Non-Canadian Partnerships (or, in the discretion of the Trustees, that the person is not a Non-Resident Beneficiary) and does not hold his or its Units for a Non-Resident Beneficiary;
- the Trustees may place such other limits on Unit ownership by Non-Residents and/or Non-Canadian Partnerships as the Trustees may deem necessary in their sole discretion, including unilaterally altering the limit on Non-Resident ownership above, to the extent required, in the opinion of the Trustees, to maintain the Fund’s status as a mutual fund trust; and
- if, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustees, in their sole discretion, determine that further action is required so that the Fund continues to qualify as a mutual fund trust for purposes of the Tax Act, the Trustees may send a notice to such Unitholders, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such manner as the Trustees may consider equitable and practicable, requiring them to sell their Units or a portion thereof within a specified period of not less than 30 days. If the Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Units or provided the Trustees with satisfactory evidence that they are not Non-Residents and/or Non-Canadian Partnerships and do not hold their Units for the benefit of Non-Resident Beneficiaries within such period, the Trustees may sell such Units on behalf of such Unitholders, and in the interim, the voting and distribution rights attached to such Units shall be suspended. Upon such sale, the affected holders shall cease to be Unitholders and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale.

In any situation where it is unclear whether Units are held for the benefit of Non-Resident Beneficiaries, the Trustees may exercise their discretion in determining whether such Units are or are not so held.

Information and Reports

The Fund shall furnish to Unitholders, in accordance with applicable securities laws, all financial statements of the Fund (including quarterly and annual financial statements and certifications) and other reports as are from time to time required by applicable law, including prescribed forms needed for the completion of Unitholder’s tax returns under the Tax Act and equivalent provincial legislation.

Prior to each meeting of Unitholders, the Trustees shall provide to the Unitholders (along with notice of the meeting) all information, together with such certifications, as is required by applicable law and by the Fund Declaration of Trust to be provided to Unitholders. In addition, Supremex has undertaken to the securities commissions or other securities regulatory authorities in each of the provinces of Canada and to the Fund that, following the closing of the Initial Public Offering and for so long as the Fund is a reporting issuer under applicable securities laws, it shall:

- (a) issue a press release and deliver to the Fund for filing a material change report in respect of any material change in its business, operations or capital;
- (b) provide to the Fund the information that would be required to be included in an annual information form or any other report or document required to be filed with the securities commissions or other securities regulatory authorities as if it was a reporting issuer in each of the provinces of Canada; and

- (c) to the extent that the Fund does not prepare financial statements including its results of operations, deliver to the Fund quarterly unaudited and annual audited financial statements together with corresponding Management's discussion and analysis for those periods for filing with the securities commissions or other securities regulatory authorities in each of the provinces of Canada and delivery to the Fund's registered and beneficial Unitholders in accordance with applicable securities laws.

Such releases, forms, reports and statements, in each case, shall be in the form and content that Supremex would be required to file with the Autorité des marchés financiers as if it were a reporting issuer under Québec securities laws. The quarterly unaudited and annual audited financial statements of Supremex shall be delivered by the Fund to Unitholders concurrently with the financial statements of the Fund for the corresponding period.

The chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Supremex must perform functions similar to a chief executive officer and chief financial officer in respect of the Fund. As such the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Supremex have executed the certificates required to be filed pursuant to Multilateral Instrument 52-109 — Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings.

The Trustees, the Directors and the senior officers of subsidiaries of the Fund, including Supremex, are required to file insider reports and comply with insider trading provisions under applicable Canadian securities legislation in respect of trades made by such persons in Units and Shares.

In addition, the Fund has undertaken to the securities commissions or other securities regulatory authorities in each of the provinces of Canada that following the closing of the Initial Public Offering, and for so long as the Fund is a reporting issuer under applicable securities laws, it shall:

- treat Supremex as a subsidiary of the Fund; however, if generally accepted accounting principles prohibit the consolidation of financial information of Supremex and the Fund, for as long as Supremex (and any of its significant business interests) represents significant assets of the Fund, the Fund shall provide Unitholders with separate financial statements for Supremex (and any of its significant business interests);
- take appropriate measures to require each person who would be an insider of Supremex if Supremex were a reporting issuer to (a) file insider reports about trades in trust units of the Fund (including securities which are exchangeable into Units), and (b) comply with statutory prohibitions against insider trading; and

Term of the Fund

The Fund has been established for a term ending 21 years after the date of death of the last surviving issue of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, alive on February 10, 2006. On a date selected by the Trustees, which is not more than two years prior to the expiry of the term of the Fund, the Trustees are obligated to commence to wind-up the affairs of the Fund so that it will terminate on the expiration of the term. At any time prior to the expiry of the term of the Fund, the Unitholders may by Special Resolution require the Trustees to commence the termination, liquidation or winding-up of the affairs of the Fund.

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that, upon being required to commence the termination, liquidation or winding-up of the affairs of the Fund, the Trustees will give notice thereof to the Unitholders, which notice will designate the time or times at which Unitholders must surrender their Units for cancellation and the date at which the register of Units will be closed. After the date the register is closed, the Trustees will proceed to wind up the affairs of the Fund as soon as may be reasonably practicable and for such purpose will, subject to any direction to the contrary given in respect of a termination authorized by a resolution of the Unitholders, sell and convert into money securities of Supremex and all other assets comprising the Fund in one transaction or in a series of transactions at public or private revenue and do all other acts appropriate to liquidate the Fund. After paying, retiring, discharging or making provision for the payment, retirement or discharge of all known liabilities and obligations of the Fund and providing for indemnity against any other outstanding liabilities and obligations, the Trustees, subject to obtaining all necessary regulatory approvals, will distribute the remaining part of the proceeds of the sale of securities of Supremex and other assets comprising the Fund together with any cash forming part of the assets of the Fund among the Unitholders in accordance with their pro rata interests. If the Trustees are unable to sell all or any of the securities of Supremex or other assets which comprise part of the Fund by the date set for termination, the Trustees may distribute the remaining securities of Supremex or other assets in specie directly to the Unitholders in accordance with their pro rata interests subject to obtaining all required regulatory approvals.

Amendments to the Fund Declaration of Trust

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that it may be amended by Special Resolution. The Trustees shall also be entitled to make certain amendments to the Fund Declaration of Trust, without the approval of Unitholders, including amendments: (i) that are required for the purpose of ensuring continuing compliance with applicable laws, regulations, requirements or policies of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Trustees or the Fund; (ii) to remove any conflicts or inconsistencies in the Fund Declaration of Trust or making minor corrections which, in the opinion of counsel to the Fund, are necessary or desirable and not prejudicial to the Unitholders; or (iii) that, in the opinion of counsel to the Fund, are necessary or desirable in the interests of the Unitholders as a result of changes in Canadian taxation laws.

No amendment may modify the right to one vote per Unit or reduce the fractional undivided interest in the property of the Fund represented by any Unit without the consent of the holder of such Unit, and no amendment shall reduce the percentage of votes required to be cast at a meeting of the Unitholders for the purpose of amending the provisions of the Fund Declaration of Trust on amendments thereto without the consent of all the then Unitholders.

No amendment may modify or conflict with certain specified provisions in the Fund Declaration of Trust without the Vendor's consent.

Required Approvals

Where used in this Annual Information Form, "Ordinary Resolution" means a resolution passed by the affirmative vote of the holder(s) of more than 50% of the Units issued and outstanding at that time who voted in respect of that resolution at a meeting of Unitholders at which a quorum was present, or a resolution or instrument signed by the holder(s) of all of the Units issued and outstanding at that time entitled to be voted on such resolution, and "Special Resolution" means a resolution passed by the affirmative vote of the holder(s) of not less than 66 2/3% of the Units issued and outstanding at that time who voted in respect of that resolution at a meeting of Unitholders at which a quorum was present, or a resolution or instrument signed by the holder(s) of all of the Units issued and outstanding at that time entitled to be voted on such resolution.

Conflicts of Interest Restrictions and Provisions

The Fund Declaration of Trust contains "conflict of interest" provisions that serve to protect Unitholders without creating undue limitations on the Fund. The Fund Declaration of Trust contains provisions, similar to those contained in the CBCA, that require each Trustee to disclose to the Fund, as applicable, any interest in a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Fund, or the fact that such person is a director or officer of, or otherwise has a material interest in, any person who is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Fund. In any case, a Trustee who has made disclosure to the foregoing effect is not entitled to vote on any resolution to approve the contract or transaction unless the contract or transaction is one relating primarily to (i) his remuneration as a Trustee or officer of the Fund, as applicable, (ii) insurance or indemnity, or (iii) a contract or transaction with an affiliate.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Fund Declaration of Trust, except as otherwise agreed in writing by Supremex and Cenveo, (i) neither Cenveo nor Vendor (nor any of their respective affiliates or associates) shall have any duty to refrain from engaging directly or indirectly in the same or similar activities or lines of business as the Fund or Supremex or any of their respective affiliates or associates, doing business with any potential or actual customer or supplier of the Fund or Supremex or any of their respective affiliates or associates, or employing or engaging or soliciting for employment any officer or employee of the Fund or Supremex or any of their respective affiliates or associates, and (ii) a person who is a Trustee or an observer under the Fund Declaration of Trust or a director or officer of the Fund or Supremex (or any of their respective affiliates or associates) and also is a director, officer or controlling shareholder of Cenveo or the Vendor (or any of their respective affiliates or associates) shall not have any obligation to present to the Fund or Supremex (or any of their respective affiliates or associates) any matter that may be an opportunity for both Cenveo or the Vendor (or any of their respective affiliates or associates), on the one hand, and the Fund or Supremex (or any of their respective affiliates or associates), on the other hand, and may present such matter solely to Cenveo or the Vendor (or any of their respective affiliates or associates).

Rights of Unitholders

The rights of the Unitholders are established by the Fund Declaration of Trust. Although the Fund Declaration of Trust confers upon a Unitholder many of the same protections, rights and remedies as an investor would have as a shareholder of a corporation governed by the CBCA, there do exist significant differences.

The Fund Declaration of Trust includes provisions intended to limit the liability of Unitholders for liabilities and other obligations of the Fund, although no statutory provisions historically confirmed the limited liability status of Unitholders in a manner comparable to shareholders of a CBCA corporation.

Many of the provisions of the CBCA respecting the governance and management of a corporation have been incorporated in the Fund Declaration of Trust. For example, Unitholders are entitled to exercise voting rights in respect of their holdings of Units in a manner comparable to shareholders of a CBCA corporation and to elect Trustees and auditors. The Fund Declaration of Trust also includes provisions modeled after comparable provisions of the CBCA dealing with the calling and holding of meetings of Unitholders and Trustees, the quorum for and procedures at such meetings and the right of investors to participate in the decision-making process where certain fundamental actions are proposed to be undertaken. The matters in respect of which Unitholder approval is required under the Fund Declaration of Trust are generally less extensive than the rights conferred on the shareholders of a CBCA corporation, but effectively extend to certain fundamental actions that may be undertaken by the Fund's subsidiary entities. These Unitholder approval rights are supplemented by provisions of applicable securities laws that are generally applicable to issuers (whether corporations, trusts or other entities) that are "reporting issuers" or the equivalent or listed on the TSX.

Unitholders do not have recourse to a dissent right under which shareholders of a CBCA corporation are entitled to receive the fair value of their shares where certain fundamental changes affecting the corporation are undertaken (such as an amalgamation, a continuance under the laws of another jurisdiction, the sale of all or substantially all of its property, a going private transaction or the addition, change or removal of provisions restricting (i) the business or businesses that the corporation can carry on or (ii) the issue, transfer or ownership of shares). As an alternative, Unitholders seeking to terminate their investment in the Fund are entitled to redeem their Units, as described under "Description of the Fund — Redemption Right at the Option of the Unitholders". Unitholders similarly do not have recourse to the statutory oppression remedy that is available to shareholders of a CBCA corporation where the corporation undertakes actions that are oppressive, unfairly prejudicial or disregarding the interests of securityholders and certain other parties.

Shareholders of a CBCA corporation may also apply to a court to order the liquidation and dissolution of the corporation in those circumstances, whereas Unitholders could rely only on the general provisions of the Fund Declaration of Trust, which permit the winding up of the Fund with the approval of a Special Resolution of the Unitholders. Shareholders of a CBCA corporation may also apply to a court for the appointment of an inspector to investigate the manner in which the business of the corporation and its affiliates is being carried on where there is reason to believe that fraudulent, dishonest or oppressive conduct has occurred. The Fund Declaration of Trust allows Unitholders to pass resolutions appointing an inspector to investigate the Trustees' performance of their responsibilities and duties, but this process would not be subject to court oversight or assure the other investigative procedures, rights and remedies available under the CBCA. The CBCA also permits shareholders to bring or intervene in derivative actions in the name of the corporation or any of its subsidiaries, with the leave of a court. The Fund Declaration of Trust does not include a comparable right of the Unitholders to commence or participate in legal proceedings with respect to the Fund.

Fiscal Year End

The fiscal year end of the Fund is December 31.

DESCRIPTION OF SUPREMEX

Share Capital of Supremex

The authorized share capital of Supremex consists of an unlimited number of Shares and an unlimited number of preferred non-voting shares, issuable in series. As at December 31, 2007, all of the issued and outstanding Shares were held by the Fund and no preferred shares were outstanding.

Common Shares

Holders of Shares are entitled to receive dividends as and when declared by the Board of Directors of Supremex and are entitled to one vote per Share on all matters to be voted on at all meetings of shareholders. Upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Supremex, the holders of Shares are entitled to share rateably in the remaining assets available for distribution, after payment of liabilities and subject to the prior rights of preferred shares (if any).

Preferred Shares

The Board of Directors of Supremex has the authority, without further action by the shareholders, to issue an unlimited number of preferred shares in one or more series. These preferred shares may be entitled to dividend and liquidation preferences over the Shares. The Board of Directors may fix the designations, powers, preferences, privileges and relative, participating, optional or special rights of any preferred shares issued, including any qualifications, limitations or restrictions. Special rights which may be granted to a series of preferred shares may include dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption and liquidation preferences, any of which may be superior to the rights of the Shares.

Distribution Policy

The Board of Directors of Supremex has adopted a policy to distribute all of its available cash, subject to applicable Law, by way of monthly dividends on its Shares or other distributions on its securities, after:

- satisfaction of its debt service obligations, if any;
- satisfaction of its interest (including interest accrued or payable on the Notes) and other expense obligations (including tax and pension liabilities);
- making any principal repayments in respect of the Notes considered advisable by the Board of directors, with the consent of the Fund and the holders of the Notes by extraordinary resolution;

- retaining amounts for capital expenditures;
- retaining such reasonable working capital as may be considered appropriate.

However, the declaration of any dividends on the Shares remains within the discretion of the Board of Directors of Supremex.

Notes Issued by Supremex

The following is a summary of the material attributes and characteristics of the Notes that were issued by Supremex Inc. under a note indenture (the “Note Indenture”) entered into between Supremex and the note trustee, Computershare Trust Company of Canada (the “Note Trustee”). This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the Note Indenture which contains a complete statement of those attributes and characteristics.

The Series 1 Notes authorized are unlimited in number and principal amount and mature 10 years after their issuance, subject to prepayment from time to time as considered advisable by the Board of Directors of Supremex, with the consent of the Fund and the holders of the Notes by extraordinary resolution. Under the terms of the Series 1 Notes, interest accrues at the rate of 12.7% per annum and must be paid monthly within 15 days following the end of each month. The interest and principal on the Series 1 Notes is payable in lawful money of Canada at any branch in Canada of the bank to be specified in the Note Indenture. Each Series 2 Notes mature on a date which is not later than the first anniversary of the date of issuance thereof and bear interest at a market rate to be determined by the Board of Directors of Supremex at the time of issuance thereof, payable on the 15th day of each calendar month that such Series 2 Note is outstanding. The Notes are issuable only as fully registered notes in minimum denominations of $10 and for amounts above that minimum only in integral multiples of $10.

The Notes are unsecured debt obligations of Supremex.

Payment upon Maturity

On maturity, Supremex will repay the indebtedness represented by the Notes by paying to the Note Trustee, on behalf of the holders, in lawful money of Canada an amount equal to the principal amount of the outstanding notes, together with accrued and unpaid interest. If the Fund is a holder of Notes at the time of such repayment, these payments less expenses will be distributed by the Fund to Unitholders.

Redemption

From time to time, the Board of Directors of Supremex shall review the status of Supremex’s assets and the economic condition relating to Supremex’s business and the industry within which it operates. If this review, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of Supremex, indicates that it is unlikely that the indebtedness of Supremex evidenced by the Notes could be refinanced on the same terms and conditions upon maturity of those Notes, then Supremex may, subject to the consent of the Fund and the holders of the Notes by extraordinary resolution, commence principal repayments on the Notes so that, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of Supremex, the Notes will be fully repaid upon maturity. In that event, the available cash of Supremex will be utilized to the extent required to fund those repayments in lieu of dividends on its Shares. In addition, if Supremex has available cash, but is prohibited from declaring or paying a dividend or reducing its stated capital under applicable corporate laws, the Board of Directors of Supremex may make principal repayments on the Notes to the extent of that available cash. Except as set out above, the Notes are not redeemable at the option of Supremex or by the holders prior to maturity.

DISTRIBUTIONS

Distribution Policy of the Fund

The Fund intends to make monthly distributions to Unitholders of its distributable cash less certain amounts including expenses and reserves. The amount of the cash available for distribution shall be equal to a pro rata share of the interest and principal repayments (except to the extent the repayment of principal is reinvested) on Notes and dividends or other distributions (if any) on or in respect of the Shares owned by the Fund less amounts that may be paid by the Fund in connection with any cash redemptions or repurchases of Units, any interest accrued for and in respect of any indebtedness of the Fund, amounts which relate to the repayment of the principal amount of any indebtedness of the Fund, amounts which the Trustees may reasonably consider necessary to provide for payment of any costs or expenses required for the operation of the Fund and for income tax liability of the Fund, if any. The Fund intends to make monthly cash distributions of Distributable Cash to the Unitholders of record on the last Business Day of each month. Such monthly distributions shall be paid on or about the 15th day following each record date.

Distributions

As the Fund is an income trust, it does not pay dividends. The initial distribution for the period from the closing of the Initial Public Offering on April 1, 2006 to April 30, 2006 was made on May 15, 2006 in an amount of $0.0958 per Unit. Subsequent cash distributions of $0.0958 per Unit were made for the months of May 2006 to February 2008.

TRUSTEES, DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT

Trustees, Directors and Management

The Fund Declaration of Trust provides that the board of trustees of the Fund must consist of not fewer than three and not more than nine members (the “Trustees”). On March 31, 2006, each of the Trustees was appointed as a director to the board of directors of Supremex (each a “Director”, and collectively with the others directors of Supremex, the “Directors”). Under the Fund Declaration of Trust, the Fund has agreed that the board of directors of Supremex shall be composed of the Trustees, unless otherwise agreed by the Independent Trustees. Two thirds of the Trustees and the Directors shall be residents of Canada and the majority shall qualify as “independent” within the meaning of applicable securities laws. As at December 31, 2007, the Fund had five Trustees, four of which are residents of Canada, and a majority of which are “independent” within the meaning of applicable securities laws. The term of office of each of the Trustees will expire at the first annual meeting of the Unitholders.

The following table sets out the name, municipality of residence, positions with the Fund (i.e., trusteeship) and Supremex (i.e., directorship and/or office), as the case may be, and principal occupation of each of the Trustees/Directors and certain other officers of Supremex that occupy such positions.

Governance of the Fund

The Trustees are responsible for the governance of the Fund and have established an audit committee and a Compensation, Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, each of which shall have three members who shall all be "independent" within the meaning of applicable securities laws.

Compensation, Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee

Compensation, Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee shall annually review the Chief Executive Officer's goals and objectives for the upcoming year and provide an appraisal of the Chief Executive Officer's performance. The committee shall make recommendations concerning the remuneration of the Trustees and shall administer and make recommendations regarding any employee bonus plans.

The committee shall also review and make recommendations to the Trustees concerning the appointment of officers of the Fund and its subsidiary entities. The committee is responsible for developing the Fund's approach to corporate governance issues, advising the board on filling vacancies on the board and periodically reviewing the composition and effectiveness of the board and the contribution of individual Trustees. The committee is responsible for adopting and periodically reviewing and updating the Fund's written disclosure policy. This policy, among other things: (i) articulates the legal obligations of the Fund, its affiliates and their respective trustees, directors, officers, employees and consultants with respect to confidential information; (ii) identifies spokespersons of the Fund who are the only persons authorized to communicate with third parties such as analysts, the media and investors; (iii) provides guidelines on the disclosure of forward-looking information; (iv) requires advance review by senior executives of the Fund of any selective disclosure of financial information to ensure the information is not material, to prevent the selective disclosure of material information and to ensure that, if selective disclosure of material information does occur, a news release is issued immediately; and (v) establishes "black-out" periods prior to and following the disclosure of quarterly and annual financial results and prior to the disclosure of certain material changes, during which periods the Fund, its affiliates and their respective trustees, directors, officers, employees and consultants may not purchase or sell Units.

AUDIT COMMITTEE INFORMATION

The audit committee assists the Trustees in fulfilling their responsibilities of oversight and supervision of the accounting and financial reporting practices and procedures of the Fund, the adequacy of internal accounting controls and procedures, and the quality and integrity of the financial statements of the Fund. In addition, the committee is responsible for directing the auditors' examination of specific areas and for the selection of potential independent auditors to be appointed by the Unitholders.

Charter of the Audit Committee

The charter of the Audit Committee, as approved on April 12, 2006 and amended on November 5, 2007, is set out in Schedule A to this Annual Information Form.

Composition of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is composed of three members, as follows: L.G. Serge Gadbois, George Kobrynsky and Hebert Lukofsky. Each member of the Audit Committee is independent of each of the Fund and Supremex and financially literate as required under Multilateral Instrument 52-110 – Audit Committees

Relevant Education and Experience of the Audit Committee Members

In addition to each member's general business experience, the education and experience of each Audit Committee member that is relevant to the performance of his or her responsibilities as an Audit Committee member is as follows:

- (i) L.G. Serge Gadbois is a corporate director of Industrial Alliance, Insurance and Financial Services Inc., Cogeco Cable Inc. and Mecachrome International Inc. Previously, Mr. Gadbois held various positions at Metro Inc. such as Senior Vice-President, Finance, from 1997 until February 2006, and was also Vice-President Finance from 1985 to 1997. Prior to this, he served as Controller and Director of Financial Services at the School Council of the Island of Montreal for eight years. He holds a Master of Business Administration from the École des Hautes Études Commerciales and is a member and Fellow of the Quebec Order of Chartered Accountants.
- (ii) George Kobrynsky is Senior Vice-President, Investments Forest Products of the Société générale de financement du Québec. Previously, Mr. Kobrynsky held various senior positions at Domtar Inc. over 30 years including Senior Vice-President, Pulp and Paper Sales, Marketing/Customer Relations Group from 2001 to 2005 and Senior Vice-President, Communication Papers Division from 1995 to 2001. He also held a position at the Ministry of the Environment of Canada from 1971 to 1975. Mr. Kobrynsky has completed the Senior Executive Program from Western University. He also holds a Master of Business Administration from McGill University, a Bachelor's degree in Sciences from the Université Laval and a Bachelor's of Arts degree from the Université de Montréal.
- (iii) Herbert Lukofsky is and has been a corporate director of numerous public and private companies including Liquidation World Inc., Société de développement de Montréal, Solareh Inc., LaGran Inc., International Aqua Foods Inc., Hallmark Technologies Inc. and Inventronics Inc. Previously, Mr. Lukofsky was a tax partner and head of tax division at the Montreal office of Arthur Andersen LLP from 1970 to 1984 and President of Lukofsky Lajoie & Associates, a business consulting firm specializing in mergers and acquisitions, from 1984 to 1992. Mr. Lukofsky holds a Bachelor's degree in Commerce from Concordia University and a Chartered Accountancy Designation from McGill University.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The transfer agent and registrar for the Units is Computershare Investor Services Inc. at its principal transfer office in Montreal, Québec.

ESCROWED SECURITIES

The following table state the number of Units of the Fund held, to our knowledge, in escrow, and the percentage that number represents of the outstanding Units.

Escrowed Securities	Number of Units held in escrow⁽¹⁾	Percentage of the class
Units	2,364,228	8.0%

- (1) Computershare Trust Company of Canada is acting as escrow agent. As part of the Fund's acquisition of Supremex, 2,364,228 Units valued at $23,642,280 were issued to management employees of Supremex for a cash consideration of $23,642 to amend the then existing management profit sharing plan. These Units are held in escrow and 50% will be released on March 31, 2008, 25% on March 31, 2009 and 25% on March 31, 2010, subject to earlier release under certain circumstances or sold to Supremex for a nominal consideration of $0.01 per Unit in the event of the voluntary departure of the employee or termination by Supremex for cause prior the expiry of the four year escrow period. The initial value of such Units, net of the cash consideration received, is recorded as deferred compensation and is recorded as compensation expense over the vesting period.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Fund's results include, for fiscal 2007, $2.1 million of sales to and $0.5 million of purchases of raw material from Cenveo and/or its related companies. These transactions were concluded from January to March 2007 after which Cenveo sold its participation in the Fund.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In the normal course of its operations, Supremex is exposed to various claims, disputes and legal actions mostly related to disputes in respect of customer orders, product liability claims and labor issues. While the final outcome with respect to any such claims, disputes and legal actions cannot be predicted with certainty, Management believes that their resolution should not have a material adverse effect on Supremex's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash available for distribution.

In April 2003, the Canadian Competition Bureau began an inquiry into certain activities of Canada's major distributors of fine and carbonless paper products, including, among others, Cascades Fine Papers Group Inc., Domtar Inc. and Unisource Canada, Inc. On February 27, 2004, the Federal Court of Canada issued additional warrants broadening the inquiry to include other targets and other alleged offences. Innova Envelope Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Supremex that was wound up into Supremex in connection with the Initial Public Offering, and a former employee of Innova were among the additional targets named. The information filed in support of the application for the search warrant by an officer of the Competition Bureau revealed that the sources of information relied upon by the Competition Bureau included a corporate informant and its affiliates that had received a recommendation for a Provisional Guarantee of Immunity under the Competition Bureau's Immunity Program. A partial settlement of the expanded inquiry was announced on January 9, 2006 among the Competition Bureau and each of Cascades Fine Papers Group Inc., Domtar Inc. and Unisource Canada, Inc., each of which pleaded guilty to counts of conspiring to lessen competition contrary to section 45 of the Competition Act (Canada) (the "Competition Act") in respect of the supply of carbonless paper. Pursuant to terms of the settlement, each company was sentenced to record fines of $12.5 million for taking part in the domestic conspiracy. However, the inquiry apparently remains open insofar as at least some of the other parties are concerned. In the February 2004 warrant, a former employee of Innova Envelope Inc. was named as an alleged co-conspirator with the three aforementioned convicted companies. Innova Envelope Inc. was not directly mentioned and, to its knowledge, is not a target of the Competition Bureau's inquiry with respect to fine and carbonless paper products. However, by virtue of the activities of its former employee, Innova Envelope Inc. is being investigated by the Competition Bureau for alleged price maintenance, i.e. seeking to influence upward the resale prices charged for envelopes (not fine or carbonless paper), by certain of Innova Envelope Inc.'s customers, contrary to section 61 of the Competition Act.

Although Innova Envelope Inc. remains targeted by this inquiry, it has not been formally charged with any wrongdoing, and Management believes that it is unlikely that the foregoing Competition Bureau inquiry would result in any material liability to Supremex.

In addition to the price maintenance investigation, the Competition Bureau has also indicated to Supremex that it is interested in broadening its inquiry into Innova Envelope Inc.'s activities in respect of envelopes, or starting a new inquiry, to investigate whether price fixing or market sharing contrary to section 45 of the Competition Act took place in respect of the supply of envelopes in one or more areas of Canada. In this regard, the Competition Bureau has specifically expressed an interest in interrogating a former officer of Supremex based in Québec in relation to alleged activities dating back to the 1980's and 1990's.

Pursuant to section 61(9) of the Competition Act, persons convicted for having engaged in price maintenance are liable to a fine in the discretion of the court or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both. Pursuant to section 45(1) of the Competition Act, persons convicted for having contravened one of the conspiracy provisions in that section are liable to a fine not exceeding ten million dollars per count or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both. Recent fines imposed have been calculated by reference to the volume of affected commerce of the illegal activity. Given that Supremex is not yet a target of any investigation under section 45 of the Competition Act, it is not able to assess the possible periods of time or geographic scope of activity covered by any investigation that might be commenced, and therefore is not able to assess any potential volume of commerce that might have been affected by any conduct that is the subject of such potential investigation.

Pursuant to section 36 of the Competition Act, any person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of conduct that is contrary to any provision in Part VI of the Competition Act, including price maintenance under section 61 and conspiracy to fix prices or allocate markets under section 45, may, in a court of competent jurisdiction, sue for and recover from the person who engaged in the conduct an amount equal to the loss or damage proved to have been suffered by him, together with any additional amount that the court may allow not exceeding the full cost to him of any investigation in connection with the matter and of proceedings under section 36. Neither Innova nor Supremex are presently the subject of any civil proceedings related to matters under inquiry by the Competition Bureau.

While Competition Bureau activity is continuing, Supremex is presently not able to assess or predict the scope or outcome of the current inquiry, or any new inquiry that may be commenced, and the impact, if any, of such proceedings on Supremex. The Fund has obtained specific indemnification in relation to these matters and in respect of claims resulting from the existing and potential inquiries by the Competition Bureau.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Except as disclosed below and elsewhere herein, no trustee of the Fund or director or senior officer of Supremex or other insider of Supremex, nor any associate or affiliate of the foregoing persons has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, in any material transaction since the commencement of the Fund's last financial year.

RISK FACTORS

The results of operations, business prospects and financial condition of Supremex are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, and are affected by a number of factors outside the control of Supremex's management.

Impact of the Internet and other alternative media and introduction of new incentive measures

Supremex's envelope manufacturing business is highly dependent upon the demand for envelopes sent through the mail. Supremex may compete with product substitutes, which can impact demand for its products. Usage of the Internet and other electronic media continues to grow. Consumers use these media to purchase goods and services, and for other purposes such as paying utility and credit card bills. Advertisers use the Internet and electronic media for targeted campaigns directed at specific electronic user groups. Large and small businesses use electronic media to conduct business, send invoices and collect bills. The demand for envelopes and other printed materials for transactional purposes is expected to decline in the future.

There can be no assurance that the acceleration of the trend towards electronic media such as the Internet and other alternative media or the introduction of incentive objectives, measures, standards, policies or programs to decrease paper consumption will not cause a decrease in the demand for its products, which could have a material adverse effect on Supremex's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash available for distributions. Supremex follows the transactional mail trends closely and invests in high added value equipment to compensate for this potential issue.

Customer relationships

The envelope industry in which Supremex competes is generally characterized by individual orders from customers or short-term contracts. Most customer orders are for specific manufacturing jobs, and repeat business largely depends on the customers' satisfaction with the product and service. Although Supremex's business is not dependent upon any one customer or group of customers, there can be no assurance that any particular customer will continue to do business with Supremex for any period of time.

Supremex typically does not enter into long-term, written agreements with customers. As a result, there is a risk that customers may, without notice or penalty, terminate their relationship with Supremex at any time. In addition, even if customers should decide to continue their relationship with Supremex, there can be no guarantee that customers will purchase the same amount as in the past, or that purchases will be on similar terms. Supremex's customer base is well diversified with no single account representing more than 10% of sales, thus reducing the dependence on a single customer.

Increases in the cost of raw materials or other operating costs

The cost of paper represents the most significant portion of Supremex's cost of goods sold. Additionally, Supremex utilizes a number of other raw materials, including window film, boxes, glue and ink, that are subject to price fluctuations beyond its control. Supremex is also subject to cost increases relating to any future rise in the price of fuel, labour costs and other costs relating to its operations generally. There has historically been a time lag, which may be more pronounced in the United States, before any increases in the price of raw materials or in any other operating costs could be passed on to Supremex's customers. There can be no assurance that the price of Supremex's raw materials or other operating costs will not increase in the future or that Supremex will be able to pass on any increases to its customers consistent with past industry practice. In addition, Supremex cannot be certain that future price increases will not result in decreased volumes of units sold.

Supremex has long term relationships with most of its suppliers and sources its purchases from many different suppliers, making sure that the pricing is competitive on a North American basis.

Limited growth in the envelope and related industries

The North American envelope manufacturing and mailing industries are not expected to grow significantly in the foreseeable future, due to a general progressive decline in the use of traditional paper-based products. The Business depends on transactional mail and direct mail activities. The transactional mail volumes are thought to have been declining in the last few years due in part to the increasing use of non-traditional sources of communication and information transfer, such as facsimile machines, electronic mail and the Internet. While Management believes that the direct mail industry has experienced growth in envelope volumes and which has partially offset declines in the transactional mail industry, there is no assurance that the direct mail industry will grow in the future and sufficiently offset any declines in transactional mail. As a result, there can be no assurance that Supremex will be able to grow its sales or even maintain historical levels of sales.

Competition

Despite Supremex's leading market position in Canada, there may be new entrants in the Canadian envelope market which may have an impact on sales and margins and continued strength in the Canadian dollar versus the US dollar may create an incentive for U.S.-based competitors to increase market penetration in Canada.

Foreign exchange

The distributions to unitholders is denominated in Canadian dollars. However, a portion of Supremex's revenue is earned in US dollars and a portion of Supremex's expenses, including part of the cost of paper and other raw materials as well as certain capital expenditures, are incurred in US dollars. Supremex also derives a portion of its revenue from sales in Canadian dollars to certain customers in respect of whom the selling price is sensitive to competition from U.S. players. As a result, the Canadian dollar selling price to these customers may be under pressure as the Canadian dollar strengthens, as we saw and faced in 2007.

Movements in the exchange rate between US and Canadian dollar could have an effect on Supremex's ability to successfully market its products in the United States.

As a result, fluctuations in the exchange rate between US and Canadian dollar could have an adverse impact on Supremex's operating results and financial condition, depending on the level of sales in the US and purchases from the US. We are trying to keep a natural hedge in place.

Litigation

Supremex, like other manufacturing and sales organizations, is subject to potential liabilities connected with its business operations, including expenses associated with product defects, performance, reliability or delivery delays. Supremex is threatened from time to time with, or is named as a defendant in, legal proceedings, including lawsuits based upon product liability, personal injury, breach of contract and lost profits or other consequential damages claims, in the ordinary course of conducting its business. A significant judgment against Supremex, or the imposition of a significant fine or penalty, as a result of a finding that Supremex failed to comply with laws or regulations, or being named as a defendant on multiple claims could have a material adverse effect on Supremex's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash available for distributions.

One of the predecessor companies of Supremex is currently the target of an inquiry by the Competition Bureau with respect to alleged price maintenance offences under section 61 of the Competition Act and Management understands that Supremex may become the subject of further inquiries by the Competition Bureau regarding price fixing or market sharing activities in connection with the sale of envelopes, contrary to section 45 of the Competition Act.

If Supremex is found guilty of the alleged price maintenance offences under section 61 of the Competition Act or as a result of any inquiry into price fixing or market sharing activities contrary to section 45 of the Competition Act, the resulting fines and negative publicity could be substantial and could have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operation and financial condition of Supremex, and on cash available for distributions. In addition, Supremex could be the target of class action lawsuits in such circumstances.

Supremex and the Fund exposure toward the above matters are mitigated by the fact that the acquisition agreement also contains representation and warranties and related indemnities for any liabilities arising before September 30, 2008 in favour of the Fund.

Postal services

Because the majority of envelopes consumed in Canada and the United States are mailed, any strike or other work stoppage by unionized postal workers would effectively result in a temporary suspension of the mail activities of most of the customers of Supremex and could have a material adverse effect on Supremex's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash available for distributions.

In addition, postal rates are a significant factor affecting envelope usage and any increases in postal rates, relative to changes in the cost of alternative delivery means or advertising media, could result in reductions in the volume of mail sent. No assurance can be provided that future increases in postal rates will not have a negative effect on the level of mail sent, or the volume of envelopes purchased. Such occurrences could have a material adverse effect on Supremex's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash available for distributions. Canada Post has renewed its bargaining agreement with the majority of its employees in the last year, reducing the risk of a disruption of postal services.

Reliance on key personnel

Supremex's ability to successfully implement its business strategy and to operate profitably is dependent on the abilities, experience and efforts of members of its senior management and key sales and operations personnel. While Supremex has entered into employment agreements and/or confidentiality and non-compete agreements with some of its key employees, should any of its key employees become unable or unwilling to continue their employment, Supremex could be significantly adversely impacted. In addition, Supremex's continued success depends on its ability to attract and retain experienced key employees.

Labour Disputes and Unions

Some of Supremex's employees are subject to collective bargaining agreements. Other employees are not part of a union and there are no assurances that such employees will not form or join a union. The unionization of these employees could result in increased labour costs and may have a material adverse effect on Supremex's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash available for distributions.

Although Supremex has not experienced any work stoppages due to employee-related disputes in the past 14 years under current Management and Management believes that it has a good relationship with its employees, there can be no assurance that work stoppages or other labour disturbances will not occur in the future. Such occurrences could have a material adverse effect on Supremex's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash available for distributions.

Future Acquisitions and Ability to Integrate Acquired Businesses

Historically, Supremex has been successful in growing revenue and profits through acquisitions and integration of acquired envelope manufacturers. Supremex may pursue acquisitions that are economically and strategically justified in the future. However, there can be no assurance that Supremex will be able to identify attractive acquisition candidates in the future, or that it will succeed in: (i) acquiring additional target companies at attractive prices; (ii) financing such acquisitions; (iii) obtaining any required regulatory approvals, including that of the Competition Bureau; (iv) effectively managing the integration of acquired businesses, including the leveraging of corporate overhead and (v) keeping the business volume of the combined companies as some customers may not want to concentrate their purchase volume with only one supplier.

Supremex may be required to raise capital in the future if it decides to make additional acquisitions. The availability of future borrowing and access to capital markets for financing depends on prevailing market conditions and the acceptability of financing terms offered to Supremex. There can be no assurance that future borrowings or equity financing will be available to Supremex, or available on acceptable terms, in an amount sufficient to satisfy Supremex's needs.

Unpredictability and Volatility of Unit Price

A publicly-traded income trust will not necessarily trade at values determined by reference to the underlying value of its business. The prices at which the Units will trade cannot be predicted. The market price of the Units could be subject to significant fluctuations in response to variations in quarterly operating results, monthly distributions, and other factors. In addition, industry specific fluctuations in the stock market may adversely affect the market price of the Units regardless of the Fund's operating performance and there can be no assurance that the price of the Units will remain at current levels. The annual yield on the Units as compared to the annual yield on other financial instruments may also influence the price of Units in the public trading markets. In addition, the securities markets have experienced significant price and volume fluctuations from time to time in recent years that often have been unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of particular issuers. These broad fluctuations may adversely affect the market price of the Units.

Income tax matters

There can be no assurance that Canadian federal income tax laws respecting the treatment of mutual fund trusts will not be changed in a manner that adversely affects the holders of units.

For example, on October 31, 2006, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced the “Tax Fairness Plan” and tabled a Notice of Ways and Means Motion that proposes to significantly change the income tax treatment of most publicly traded trusts and partnerships (other than certain real estate investment trusts) and the distributions and allocations, as the case may be, from these entities to their investors. The changes were enacted in 2007. Certain income earned by these entities will be taxed in a manner similar to income earned by a corporation and distributions or allocations on such income made by these entities to investors will be taxed in a manner similar to dividends from taxable Canadian corporations. The deemed dividend will be eligible for the proposed new enhanced dividend tax credit if paid or allocated to a resident of Canada. It will be effective beginning in the 2011 taxation year for trusts and partnerships that were publicly traded prior to November 1, 2006, such as the Fund. In addition, the Department of Finance has issued guidelines under which an income trust such as the Fund will be limited as to the amount of new units it can issue after October 31, 2006 in order to avoid becoming subject to these proposals prior to the 2011 taxation year. The payment of such taxes would reduce the cash flow of the Fund thereby reducing the amount available for distributions to the Fund’s unitholders. Since the announcement of the changes, management of Supremex and the Trustees have been monitoring the changes in the income trust environment and are continuing to review potential impacts on the Fund’s current strategy and the alternatives available to the Fund, consistent with protecting and enhancing unitholder value.

INTEREST OF EXPERTS

SCHEDULE A

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER (the “Committee”)

Section 1 Role and Purpose

The Audit Committee (sometimes referred to herein as the “Committee”) is a committee of the Board of Supremex Inc. (the “Corporation”) as well as the Trustees of Supremex Income Fund (the “Fund”). The primary function of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board members and the Trustees in fulfilling their roles by:

- (a) recommending to the Board the appointment and compensation of the external auditor;
- (b) overseeing the work of the external auditor, including the resolution of any issues between the external auditor and management;
- (c) pre-approving all non-audit services (or delegating such pre-approval if and to the extent permitted by law) to be provided to the Fund or its subsidiaries by the external auditor;
- (d) reviewing and recommending the approval of the annual and interim financial statements, related management discussion and analysis (“MD&A”), and annual and interim earnings press releases before such information is publicly disclosed;
- (e) ensuring that adequate procedures are in place for the review of the Fund's public disclosure of financial information, other than those described in (d) above, extracted or derived from its financial statements, including periodically assessing the adequacy of such procedures; and
- (f) reviewing and approving any proposed hiring of current or former partner or employee of the current and former auditor of the Fund or its subsidiaries.

The Audit Committee should primarily fulfill these responsibilities by carrying out the activities enumerated in this Charter. However, it is not the duty of the Committee to prepare financial statements, to plan or conduct audits, to determine that the financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”), to conduct investigations, or to assure compliance with laws and regulations or the Fund's or the Corporation's internal policies, procedures and controls, as these are the responsibility of management and in certain cases the external auditor, as the case may be.

Section 2 Composition of the Committee and Meetings

- (1) The Audit Committee must be constituted as required under Multilateral Instrument 52-110, as it may be amended from time to time (“MI 52-110”).
- (2) The Committee should be comprised of such members as are determined by the Board, all of whom should be independent members Directors (as defined by MI 52-110), and free from any relationship that, in the view of the Board, could be reasonably expected to interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment as a member of the Committee.
- (3) All members of the Committee must (except to the extent permitted by MI 52-110) be financially literate (which is defined as the ability to read and understand a set of financial statements that present a breadth and level of complexity of the accounting issues that are generally comparable to the breadth and complexity of the issues that can reasonably be expected to be raised by the Fund's financial statements).
- (4) The members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board on an annual basis or until their successors shall be duly appointed. Unless a Chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

- (5) Any member of the Audit Committee may be removed or replaced at any time by the Board and shall cease to be a member of the Audit Committee on ceasing to be a Trustee. The Board may fill vacancies on the Audit Committee by election from among the Board. If and whenever a vacancy shall exist on the Audit Committee, the remaining members may exercise all of its powers so long as a quorum remains.
- (6) The Committee shall meet at least four times annually, or more frequently as circumstances require.
- (7) The Committee Chair may ask members of management or others to attend meetings and provide pertinent information as necessary. For purposes of performing their duties, members of the Committee shall have full access to all corporate information and any other information deemed appropriate by them, and shall be permitted to discuss such information and any other matters relating to the financial position of the Fund with senior employees, officers and the external auditor of the Fund or the Corporation, and others as they consider appropriate.
- (8) In order to foster open communication, the Committee or its Chair shall meet at least quarterly with management and the external auditor in separate sessions to discuss any matters that the Committee or each of these groups believes should be discussed privately. In addition, the Committee or its Chair should meet with management quarterly in connection with the Fund's interim financial statements.
- (9) Quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Committee shall be a majority of the number of members of the Committee or such greater number as the Committee shall determine by resolution.
- (10) Meetings of the Audit Committee shall be held from time to time and at such place as any member of the Committee shall determine upon reasonable notice to each of its members, which shall not be less than 48 hours. The notice period may be waived by all members of the Committee. Each of the Chairman of the Board and the external auditor, and the President and Chief Executive Officer and the Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary of the Corporation, shall be entitled to request that any member of the Committee call a meeting.
- (11) The Committee shall determine any desired agenda items.

Section 3 Activities

The Audit Committee shall, in addition to the matters described in Section 1:

- (1) Review on an annual basis and recommend to the Board changes to this Charter as considered appropriate from time to time.
- (2) Review the public disclosure regarding the Audit Committee required by MI 52-110.
- (3) Review and discuss, on an annual basis, with the external auditor all significant relationships they have with the Fund and the Corporation to assess their independence.
- (4) Review the performance of the external auditor and any proposed discharge of the external auditor when circumstances warrant.
- (5) Periodically consult with the external auditor out of the presence of management about significant risks or exposures, internal controls and other steps that management has taken to control such risks, and the fullness and accuracy of the financial statements, including the adequacy of internal controls to expose any payments, transactions or procedures that might be deemed illegal or otherwise improper.
- (6) Arrange for the external auditor to be available to the Committee and the Board as needed.
- (7) Review the integrity of the financial reporting processes, both internal and external, in consultation with the external auditor.

- (8) Consider the external auditor's judgments about the quality, transparency and appropriateness, not just the acceptability, of the Fund's and/or the Corporation's accounting principles and financial disclosure practices, as applied in its financial reporting, including the degree of aggressiveness or conservatism of its accounting principles and underlying estimates, and whether those principles are common practices or are minority practices.
- (9) Review all material balance sheet issues, material contingent obligations (including those associated with material acquisitions or dispositions) and material related party transactions.
- (10) Consider proposed major changes to the Fund's and/or the Corporation's accounting principles and practices.
- (11) If considered appropriate, establish separate systems of reporting to the Committee by each of management and the external auditor.
- (12) Review the scope and plans of the external auditor's audit and reviews. The Committee may authorize the external auditor to perform supplemental reviews or audits as the Committee may deem desirable.
- (13) Periodically consider the need for an internal audit function, if not present.
- (14) Following completion of the annual audit and, if applicable, quarterly reviews, review separately with each of management and the external auditor any significant changes to planned procedures, any difficulties encountered during the course of the audit and, if applicable, reviews, including any restrictions on the scope of work or access to required information and the cooperation that the external auditor received during the course of the audit and, if applicable, reviews.
- (15) Review with the external auditor and management significant findings during the year and the extent to which changes or improvements in financial or accounting practices, as approved by the Committee, have been implemented. This review should be conducted at an appropriate time subsequent to implementation of changes or improvements, as decided by the Committee.
- (16) Review activities, organizational structure and qualifications of the chief financial officer and the staff in the financial reporting area and see to it that matters related to succession planning are raised for consideration by the Board.
- (17) Review management's program of risk assessment and steps taken to address significant risks or exposures of all types, including insurance coverage and tax compliance.
- (18) Establish procedures for: the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Fund regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters; and the confidential, anonymous submission by the Fund or the Corporation employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

Section 4 General Matters

- (1) The Committee is authorized to retain independent counsel, accountants, consultants and any other professionals ("Advisors") it deems necessary to carry out its duties, and the Committee shall have the authority to determine the compensation of and to cause the Fund or the Corporation to pay any such Advisors.
- (2) The Committee is authorized to communicate directly with the external (and, if applicable, internal) auditors as it sees fit.

- (3) If considered appropriated by it, the Committee is authorized to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities, and to perform any other activities as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate.
- (4) Notwithstanding the foregoing and subject to applicable law, the Committee shall not be responsible for preparing financial statements, for planning or conducting internal or external audits or for determining that the Fund's and/or the Corporation's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as these are the responsibility of management and in certain cases the external auditor, as the case may be. Nothing contained in this Charter is intended to make the Committee liable for any non-compliance by the Fund or the Corporation with applicable laws or regulations.
- (5) The Committee is a committee of the Board and is not and shall not be deemed to be an agent of the Fund's and/or the Corporation's shareholders or the Fund's unitholders for any purpose whatsoever. The Board may, from time to time, permit departures from the terms hereof, either prospectively or retrospectively, and no provision contained herein is intended to give rise to civil liability to securityholders of the Corporation or the Fund or to any other liability whatsoever.
