SUPREMEX INC. AND CLARKE INC. TERMINATE DISCUSSIONS REGARDING NON-BINDING ACQUISITION PROPOSAL

Montreal, Quebec, August 12, 2013 – Supremex Inc., Canada's largest provider of stock and custom-manufactured envelopes (TSX: SXP), today announced the termination of its discussions with its principal shareholder, Clarke Inc., regarding Clarke's non-binding proposal, announced on March 25, 2013, to acquire all of the outstanding shares that it does not already own in Supremex.

The Special Committee of independent directors established by the Board of Directors of Supremex has reviewed the terms of Clarke's non-binding proposal with advice from its legal counsel and an independent valuator and has held several discussions with Clarke's representatives over the last four months. It has now become clear that the parties will not be able to reach an agreement on the price to be offered to shareholders of Supremex for their shares. Therefore, the Special Committee and Clarke have decided to terminate their discussions regarding Clarke's non-binding proposal.

In light of the termination of the discussions with Clarke, the Special Committee has been dissolved by the Board of Directors.
